Quite sad is that you have to write here when I refuse to accept your lowballing. CS:GO economy constantly changes prices so if you are dumb enough to not understand basics, then I can't help you, sorry. Prices are in a range between 60-70% and if someone wants to purchase a knife or any other item, then he obviously check the price on his own in the moment of purchase. Then we can adjust the price to match it.

Anyway, thank you for free BUMP, virtual hero.

But G2A Pay charges +10% for every PayPal transaction and even top-up, you braindead lowballer, who spams my thread. Get your facts right before you start spamming. REPORTED your posts.

Read next time! For example:

<https://www.steamgifts.com/discussion/XYtQI/g2a-added-payment-fee>

So the final price for PayPal would be 2.013$ and the price on OP skins depends from the type of key and for the lowest price there are usually only 1 to 4 keys then the prices go up. Usually 1.86$ - 1.9$ <https://prnt.sc/i2dtd2>
