I would love to partake in this, you should also post the good ones on Soundcloud my friend (youtube is ok).

If you need any help generating content, ideas, or undergo construction, you know where to get it.

Cigarettes at 1:14

Exactly. I believe with creative and dynamic fonts would add to the comedic experience. These are pretty good, but they sure can be better.

I believe I have some contacts with a prank channel, I will see if he's online.

Why do people always rate these quality-group related threads so poorly. It is a prime example of abuse from obnoxious users. Terrible, just terrible.

This was just fucking horrific, we make better prank calls when we are fucking around with skype credit and you trying to make a prank call is worse than letting a dog eat peanut butter off your balls well sitting on nails and drinking bleach.
