Thread: 4 Years - Feedback - Meow

Meow - July 8, 2016, 5:23 am

Originally I wanted to post this in October for my 4 year anniversary but who knows what will happen with my account & life in general so i'll write it now.

Many of you don't know me and I don't think anyone would be interested in reading some feedback but if one person reads it I will be happy.

My Journey

Here is how all started..

I was in a skype call with my friend when he introduced me to HF, he was following some tutorial on HF and he managed to 'hack' a site using SQL injection.

I was blown away with that and he told me to make an account there and I could do that too.

For 2-3 weeks I just lurked didn't post at all, didn't want to post anything, etc. I was just searching for tutorials about SQL injection and shit like that because I also wanted to 'hack' a site.

After "uncovering" myself I posted a lot in League of Legends section because at that time I played it a lot and I wanted to socialize with fellow HF members

After discovering RAT (and ratting in general) I fell in love and all I wanted to do was RAT people (LOL), got couple of victims here and there but nothing special.

My grades were fucked up so I took a long break from HF.

Around mid 2014 I came back from my break and became more and more active due to summer break and me being too lazy to go to beach.

I made PayPal account and as soon as it got verified I purchased L33T upgrade which I'm still happy I did.

I would just spam F5 and at first I thought I got scammed because l33t wasn't showing on my profile.

Someone told me that I should wait 24-48 hrs and fucking hell.. he was right.

Shit was about to get real, I made new skype account named "meowhf" and I joined all those random HF skype groups that were filled with shit & spam but at that time I didn't bother, I was happy that people would actually talk to me.

Everything went uphill from that point, I gained reputation and I was making new friends.

At some point I got interested in groups and I wanted to join one, my groups applications were pure shit at that time so I decided to buy-in to a group and that would be one of the best decisions of my life

After browsing showgroups.php and group section I decided to buy-in into group called Instinct (v1) I contacted Nivarka, he was handling buy-ins and all that shit at the time, and I told him that I wanted to join Instinct, he replied with PP email and shortly after payment was received (and Vinnie finally got home) I was in Instinct.

At first no one bothered to even reply to my posts or anything like that but shortly after they 'welcomed' me and I had a fucking good time.

Everything was good until I got in to a fight with member called - Sam - over some league related shit, I got kicked from Instinct because Sam was good friend with Teh Afro (leader of Instinct at that time).

I PM'd Nobility and he invited me back, Teh kicked me couple times again and Nobility would add me back every time.

Vinnie rebranded Instinct to Nightfall, recruited bunch of people who I'm friends with now and again, everything was awesome.

Member 'Snorlax (who is closed now) PM'd me shitting about Instinct and inviting me to join Brotherhood if I left Instinct, since me and Vinnie were okay at that time I showed him that PM without any serious means but he made a hell of a drama because of it.

Everyone had to choose, either Instinct (v2) or Brotherhood and he invited me to Illuminati to thank me because I showed him that PM.

Spoiler (Click to View)

At that time Anonymous scammed some guy for $4,000 (I think) and he got doxed/closed/rekilled/everything.

Shortly after group Illuminati was deleted (or sold?).

Vinnie was constantly joking that he would sell Instinct but no one believed him until that actually happened, him and Understalker hated each other.

They went too far and Omni closed their accounts and Vinnie was forced to sell Instinct.

Icy. bough Instinct (v2) and rebranded it to Axiom, gaming & lounge group.

Group was same as Instinct, Icy invited most of old Instinct members and recruited new ones, which was pretty good.

Because of various personal problems I had to leave HF for some time and when I came back (May 2016 if I'm correct) Icy was closed because of some kind of scam or something and group was sold (or removed?)

Everything changed, only group I still knew was Null and that group was also for sale.

I didn't want to make any enemies (as I did before) so I was just lurking around and helping members in free graphics section. Recently I won $5 from a giveaway and wanted to gamble with it and I managed to make $100 just from $5 but that is story for another time and if you are really interested you can read more about it here.

TheChief randomly PM'd me saying I was accepted to join group Nightmare (owned by The Grim), I was like wtf but okay good for me. In Nightmare I met a lot of great people that are very kind & helpful. Overall great group.

And that is it, 4 years of my HF activity in less than 6000 words. I left off some stuff because of various reasons, mostly because I don't want to bring that up and create more drama.

Hopefully you enjoyed reading this and sorry for my bad english, it's not my 1st language so I assume I made a lot of mistakes.

Below you can read my opinion about current HF groups & shoutouts at the end.

Current Group Feedback (as of 8th of July 2016)

Null - Gets shit done, pretty much inactive now.

Echo - Lounge group, probably something like Instinct, seems kida fun.

Nightmare - Currently lounge group but Grim has some cheeky plans with it.

Red Lions - Dead?

Riptide - Something like Fly by Night mixed with Studio?

Dawn - I don't know anything about this group, used to be good with Ninetales but he probably doesn't even remember me.

Enigma - Fun group to be in, people are very frendly, zSerity is great guy.

Fusion - I don't know anything about this group, seems like something gaming related but I'm not too sure.

SheepGang - Same as Fusion, I don't know anything about this group but it looks like it's gaming related.

The Order - I expected invite by Regulus but I guess he forgot about me, I don't know anything about this group.

Eternal - Fortune v2? Nex is currently selling it.

Minecrafters - I assume this was Titans before, Realizm is awesome (and I really mean that) guy and hopefully he can do something with that group, currently it looks pretty inactive.

Synergy - This was supposed to be Cancer but I have no idea what happened with that, good luck Cryptic. Looks like gaming related group.

Royalty - Name says everything, not every retard can get in to Royalty, Cibor likes my memes so I'm expecting invitation soon.

Legends - I assume this is some kind of business/marketing group, something like Specialists

Apex - I don't know nothing about this group but currently Nysta is ruining group reputation.

Final words

I know I'm not most popular HF member and most of you probably never heard of me and you probably don't care about my HF journey but I felt obligated to write it after everything I've experienced here. I was always trying to help HF members as much as I could, doesn't matter if you are upgraded or not.

When I first joined everyone would tell me to fuck off and shit like that because I was new member and some things I simply did not understand.

Again, I would like to thank everyone who read my feedback thread, hopefully you enjoyed it and have a nice day. Below are shoutouts!

So you're happy now, right? Gonna read it and edit once I'm done.

You're missing an hyperlink ("here"), and Icy was closed beacuse he scammed someone for his group afaik.

Good feedback Meow, see you around!

You do know PMs are pruned, right? There is nothing you can do to keep it for like, forever.

The content would be saved, yes, but it would no longer retain its appearance as a PM which is what I was talking about, actually.
