That's a pretty sweet siggy. I like the font, the effects and the sense of depth. The only criticism i would make is that the figure appears then dissapears a little too quickly for you to be able to appreciate it. perhaps if there was a little more of a pause between the background (blue) fading in, and the figure appearing it would make it more dramatic.

Apart from that I think it is awesome. I am not confident enough with my own ability to really comfortably judge the work of other people, but I would give this an 8.5 ;)

Keep up the good work :D
