NEW MEGA RECRUITMENT THREAD OPEN

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5392049>

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-QpfBAWgVnk>]

This recruitment for all people who play CS:GO, whether you are a casual player or a very competitive player. This sector will consist of discussions, events, friendly matches, and more. I'll be the one handling the events and and such, so if anyone has any questions regarding the sector feel free to shoot me a PM. I'm not looking for the most skilled players in the world, new players and veterans are welcome. I'm just looking for people that are dedicated and passionate about the game.

Requirements

Be willing to have a good time.

No open or unresolved scam reports.

Must follow Synergy's handbook/rules.

Must be member of Hack Forums for at least a month.

Must not have a bad reputation within the Hack Forums community.

Have time to set aside for group events and activities such as friendly 10-mans and such.

Be respectful and mature around other members of the group, this includes the sector and the whole group.

A little side note, I ask personally that you do not cheat when it comes to events and activities within the group. This ruins the fun for other members trying to play legitimately and can ultimately result in consequences such as being banned from playing in these events and activities.

Group Rules (Click to View)

Buy-in members and invited members are required to follow the rules at all times. Members can be subjected to instant removal if caught breaching the rules, regardless of type of entry into the group.

spacer

Show respect towards each and every member in the group. Any form of harassing, threatening, insulting or harming other members will result in an immediate kick from the group. Joking is allowed, but within a limit that should be known by all members.

spacer

Being rude or ignorant to the group leaders will result in an instant kick from the group. This rule is an extension to rule #1, but deserves a spot of its own just to serve as a warning to all applicants.

spacer

By becoming a member of Synergy, you are officially representing the group as a member. Any posts/threads made outside the group sub-forum reflects the group, and should be done with an acceptable amount of quality. If the leaders feel that your posting quality is not on par with the group's standards, you will be kicked without further notification.

spacer

Failure to post in an Activity Check Thread will result in your immediate removal from the group. Exceptions are only accepted if informed in the Inactivity Thread before an Activity Check is conducted. Though, members will still be removed if they inform their status in the Inactivity Thread DURING an Activity Check.

spacer

We require all members to post 10 times a week and 1 thread per month, as a minimum requirements. Failure to abide will result in an immediate removal from the group.

spacer

If you break any rules or you did not participate in any activity check, we will let you off with a warning the first time, the 2nd time you will be removed from the group, no excuses or exceptions

Application

There's no application format to follow I just ask you tell us a bit about yourself, your background playing CS:GO or CS in general, and what you can bring to the sector.

In addition, feel free to link your Steam, ESEA, FaceIT, etc. profiles if you have them.

I'm looking forward to seeing what people come up with and best of luck to you all!

Reserving application spots is NOT allowed. Post only when you're ready to submit the final application.

Please, no trolling in your applications.

This Discord is public so feel free to join even if you're not in the group.

We use Discord for most of our events and such, so be sure you have it if you don't already.

Recruitment FAQ

I see that you've accepted some applicants, am I denied?

No. You'll know when the thread is closed.

If I am accepted how will I know?
You'll receive a PM from me.

Why wasn't I accepted and can I be accepted in the future?

We look through people's profiles thoroughly before deciding on whether or not you're accepted. I cannot state the exact reason why a person was not accepted. We highly recommend you have 2FA/Gauth enabled and no scam reports open on you. Those are the main reasons people may not get accepted. Again we cannot state why you weren't accepted. You may be eligible for acceptance later if your trust scan looks cleaner than last time (assuming that's the reason you were denied beforehand).

Recruitment is now open. Start getting your applications in.

Also we'll have recruitments for more games later this week.

No format to copy/paste?

I guess I'll do it raw,

Why do you want to be a member: Because I like csgo and was already a fucking member of the original group until cryptic the fucking backstabbing traitor that he is kicked me and turn one of the oldest groups on HF into a shitty gaming group.

Are you salty?: Yes, super fucking salty.

Everybody knows all good csgo players are salty, which means I'm a good player, which means I should be accepted.

Thanks <3

ytsu12 - July 14, 2016, 8:37 pm

I would love to play some 10-mans tbh.

That sounds very fun.

We leave the presentation up-to the applicant.

Let's see how creative ppl can get.

This is a gaming group after all, have some fun. :3

So I'm accepted right?

Acceptable - July 14, 2016, 9:26 pm

I'm going to get right to the point.

I've been playing CS:GO for 2 years now. I'm currently Gold Nova 3.

I'm trying hard to climb back up to LEM because I stopped playing for a good 6 months.

I'm nothing special like a global elite or anything.

I also just recently started to play Faceit & Cevo.

If you would like a person that's down to have some fun and willing to play any time then I would be your best applicant.

Also I get really heated when people do something wrong so just warning you that I can get "salty" really fast.

Thank you for reading over my application.

Good luck to everyone else!

CSGO Background:

I've been playing competitive CSGO for almost 2 years now. I started out in silver 3 playing a lot of matchmaking with some friends I knew from other games. After a few months of that I joined ESEA. I shouldn't have joined at the time, I was not very good. Well, here we are, a few years later and I'm competing in various leagues, better than most players, and getting better everyday. I play all the time, whether it's just going in an offline match and dming or playing a pug.

If you need to know anymore information, just let me know.

I will message you my steam/esea profile.

Why I would like to join Synergy?

As with every group or community I join, it's always nice to meet new people who are apart of the group. Also, all I do in my free time is play csgo, so I feel I would make a great fit in this group. I am also interested in the discussions and group events that be will going on. As I do have a team I have to focus on I will definitely put time aside for the group, so I am able to play in the 10 mans and events.

I'm currently 21 years old.

Location:

I live in Ontario, Canada so I'm one of the east coast players.

Experience:

I started playing CSGO in October of 2015. I started off with surfing, even took it as far as starting my own surf server which I have shared here in the past but unfortunately I had to close the server. My first placement rank was actually MGE but I never played that much so I wasn't able to maintain the rank that I was placed in. Started playing with players that weren't as good as I was so I deranked to GN1. I made another account to see where I would be placed as I thought I fucked my ELO up so I figured it would be easier for me to start over and I ended up getting placed MGE again and got all the way up to LEM and deranked to LE and so forth because of spinboters and rage hackers that were SMFC - GE. Got tired of playing non-prime so I switched to my main once again and I'm currently LE. I've played a little CEVO and my currenty EFF is about 14. I have CEVO MVP and I've only played pugs but I've been asked to play scrims with teams and I've been invited to a team but I declined because I wanted to focus on getting GE before I considered anything competitive like that.

Why I want to join:

Because I actually wanted to help lead the gaming sector but I never received a PM from Cryptic so I'd at least like to be able to join the group and be able to play with other CSGO players or people that share the same interests as I do.

Tell us about yourself:

I'm a marketer, GFX artist (beginner level), and gamer. I've been doing marketing for about 2-3 years now and honestly love every part of it. I spend AT LEAST 6-7 hours daily doing online marketing. I recently started learning GFX and probably one of the best decisions I made in a while. Learning GFX saves me A LOT of money when it comes to creating projects. I currently own a Xbox 360, PS4, and PC. I rarely touch my Xbox 360 and PS4 due to the fact that the only games I play now are on PC. CS:GO has always been my main go-to game and it will remain that.

How'd you start off playing CS:GO:

I started playing CS:GO about a year or two ago. It started as a fun little game that I played now and then, but over the months I got more addicted and drawn to it. I started investing money into skins, knives mainly. I also had a huge gambling addiction (Still do, aha)

Why should we accept you?

I think I should be accepted due to the fact that I can serious and fun at the same time. I'm EXTREMELY competitive and rage a lot when it comes to play competitive games. I have great game sense compared to most people.

skelly76 - July 17, 2016, 12:41 am

Instead of a format for myself, I'll just tell you about my experience with the game.

Well first things first, I'm a competitive gamer, even in Rocket League. I put a lot of thought into my game play, I'd say my game sense for any game to be well above-average just because I spend more time thinking about stuff.

Anyway, I've been playing CS:GO for 2 years now this month I'm pretty sure. Started from S4, stayed there for 400 hours then started moving up so I know the struggle for lower ranked players. I climbed the ranks at maybe the rate of once a month? Maybe a derank here or there due to many reasons. At Nova 4 I got an idea to help me progress because I was tired of soloing and having to deal with teammates at Nova 4 who didn't care about the game as much as I did. I started to add players in my games who I thought would be good teammates and I started queuing with these players. I still do this to this day because MM is still filled with many players I don't want to be queued with. Anyway I worked my way up and up and up.

At around MGE level I realized that I wasn't going to get better just playing constant Matchmaking games, I had to practice. I downloaded aim maps and started frequently playing 1v1 servers. I also started taking interest in watching professional gameplay so that helped a lot with game mechanics.

When I got to higher ranks, I began making queues of 4 and 5, due to my friends list that had been growing and ranking up with me to this day. Having teammates you know have the skill to back you up in-game is very comforting, you don't have to think about how much you can rely on some random player when you solo queue.

Also at MGE I made another steam account and ranked it at DMG. From then on I played on two accounts pretty equally and ranked them both up to LEM. My main stayed at LEM and I was able to get the other one to SMFC, just lost the rank on the account today because I stopped playing on it.

When the derank wave hit I went down to MGE, took me a month and a half but I got my account back to LEM which is where it is now.

Just a month ago I stopped grinding to get Global Elite because I realized how much pointless effort it was, I'm happy with my skill level and I can go toe to toe with most Globals any day, I don't need the pixels to show that. I still play often and I'm usually online.

I do have experience playing tournaments in ESEA, Faceit, etc.

That's the end of my long 2 year story. ?

My plan for this group is mainly being a tutor along with making a lot of new friends, I love passing down everything I know from basic settings to complicated strategies unique to me. I play in-game leader 95% of the time but have (2000 hours+) experience playing everything so I have a wealth of knowledge and experience. Of course I'd love to participate in any group events and games the group has planned as well.

That was horribly long but that's that. I see potential in the group so I'd like to help it grow, I look forward to playing with all of you.

I love gaming I have been doing it since 2012 when I found out about MW2(Modern Warfare 2). I play CS:GO everyday, I have been playing for about little over 2 years.

How'd you start off playing CS:GO:

So, I was playing PS3 at this time (2014), then all my friends kept getting PC's and playing CS:GO. I then had no one to play with on PS3, so I went and bought a gaming computer. No regrets..

Why should we accept you?

I think I should be accepted, I am a really nice guy. Always down to play competitive and meet new people. Joining this group would give me opportunity to meet people that have same interest as me. Also if anyone in the group would need help or anything I am always down to help them improve. I would be an active member of the group, as I am on HF for several hours a day :p.

CS:GO Background: I've actually only been playing cs:go for a few months. I started because all of my friends from school recommended it. I started playing arms race and barely going positive but now that I am better, I am playing competitive on a daily basis. I started playing and got ranked at Silver Elite. 12 comp wins later, I ranked up to Silver Elite Master, which is where I am now.

Why I want to join: I want to join because sometimes it gets boring playing comp alone. My friends and I tried to create a team but no one is ever on, so I'm looking to join a decent one. I play normally for about 2 hours at least a day, now that it is summer. When school comes around, I'll probably play for an hour a day during the week and about 2 hours+ on the weekend.

I've been playing this for 1.5 years, as I stated above, This have been 1 and a half, cool year. Which I've enjoyed that much, I have never been that interested in a game, Like I've been now.

Why I would like to join Synergy?

- 1) I need more buddies to play the awesome game with
- 2) Need serious members, To play with, Win or neg.
- 3) We can que up as a full team, to not get towards hackers, that often.

And a lot more, we can discuss about the game, new e.g.

I used to be in a competitive CSGO team for my School and we'd do local lan tourneys at a college. We were quite good. I was Supreme Master First Class(SMFC) then I didn't play for a while and my skills weren't good enough for that elo so I was in DMG for a while. Then I stopped playing high high ranking due to me not having any friends that were on a lot. So I had a smurf account that I currently use to this day for CSGO. It's Silver 1 rn and I just Deagle, Zeus, Flash n Smoke now a days. I played competitive for 2 years than I stopped for the local lan touney. I'm getting back into CSGO so I play it now a days and I'm looking for people to play with. I have tips n tricks that I could share with my team mates.

CS:GO Experience: I started playing CS:GO around the later months of 2014, and I was first ranked at SEM. I found a passion which was playing CS with my friends and just generally having fun. Around mid 2015 I started to take the game more seriously and it wouldn't be uncommon for me to warm up for 30 minutes each day. As a result of this regimen I managed to climb the ranks and peaked at Global Elite. Since then I've been hovering around LEM-SMFC and generally having a good time. As of 8/8/2016 I've clocked around 2600 hours on two different accounts since I started playing this amazing game. As for league experience, I've competed in a number of smallish LAN's around my area, and placed decently well. I've tried playing CEVO and Facelt, but the skill match ups are so varied, from stomping nova's to getting blatantly aimbotted by closet cheaters. Nowadays I mostly play prime MM with some friends.

Why I'd like to join: I'd love to participate in events with other passionate members of the HF CS:GO community, and maybe make some new friends in the process. The CS:GO subforum on HF is crowded with toxicity and hackers, and as a community it is appalling. I'm hoping that this group will show the true passion and skill of CS:GO players on HF.

About me:

Computer Science student at University in Texas, just like playing games. I started playing cracked MW2 in middle school because I had no money for any games. Fast forward I moved to CS:GO and it's my main game that I play now.

CS:GO Experience:

When I first got ranked I got place in MG2, eventually I got deranked to GN2 after a while. I eventually played MM to get to DMG. I was deep in my senior year in high school so I had to focus on work and college entry so I moved away from playing for a few months only playing like 1-2 games a week. Finally when summer started I went back to the grind and as of now I am SMFC with just over 300 wins and on the Global Elite grind. I want to get to Global Elite then move on to ESEA which I do play every now and then when people want to play.

Why I want to join and what I can bring:

I never really joined a group on HF because non has really sparked my interest. CS:GO is what I like to play in my pastime, so I don't think there is any better time when I should put in a application for a group. I like to be a teacher/helper to the lower ranks which I think could be a good selling point for the group. Things like demo reviews for members could be really helpful.

Rafis - August 9, 2016, 4:25 am Going to hop straight into it as I feel a bunch of images of the user bar is a bit cliché. ?

About me: I'm 18 years old, I go by Rafis on HackForums or kicks on Steam, and live in Michigan. Have been a gamer my whole life and I'm very passionate and competitive, which is why I mostly play CS:GO and League of Legends. I'll touch more on my CS:GO "competitiveness" later on. I usually lurk on HF (hence the relatively low post count) unless I find an opportunity to meet new friends or have something worth saying (advice, help, things like that), but also very willing to contribute discussion to the groups sub-forum.

CS:GO "Profile":

As far as my CS:GO history goes, I picked up the game maybe about a year ago but never seriously got into it. About 4 months ago, a friend got me back into the game and tried to help me become good. With me being so competitive, I looked to cheating to speed up the process. Fast-forward to now, I am SMFC but still currently "legit" cheating (hopefully this doesn't affect joining the group). Touching a bit more on this topic, I still know how to play the game at a pretty high level because of playing with such good players. I can still give good advice to new players regardless of the situation. I don't spinbot or intentionally ruin games for people, but I do rage hack if someone started rage hacking first. I can play without cheats at about a MG-DMG level, and will most definitely not cheat when it comes to group events and such.

This is my current steam profile.

I also play CEVO but only as of recently so it isn't very relevant or worth linking.

Why I want to join: I'm looking to find some like-minded people to play with as well as join in on CS:GO related discussions. Unfortunately, the CS:GO sub-forum is crowded with cheating related topics, and I'm looking for more than that. I (believe) meet all requirements to join and just want to have a good time. At this moment in time, I have all the time in the world to participate in group events and would be more than happy to.

Thanks for reading. ?

CSGO Experience:

I've been playing CSGO for 1 year now and I think I'm pretty decent at the game but my current rank is only Gold Nova 1 and the only map I play on is Mirage because it's my favourite map and I think there are less hackers that plays on it. I really love CSGO and I also stream sometimes when my internet is good hehe but anyways thats about it for my experience

Why do I want to join?:

I want to join the CSGO Section of Synergy because I want to learn some new tips & tricks from the people in Synergy and I really want to make new friends and I want to play with you guys and I'm really easy to get along with and I dont rage over a game because there's no point we came here to play for fun

My name is Stashy I am 19. Born and raised in Ny. I love playing CSGO when I have free time. I hate playing comp solo. Been playing CSGO for 2 years. But was banned off another account due to some issues I caused. But I am back and I still love the game.
