Hello, my name is Hayden I am 17 years old and I have been gaming ever since I was about 4 years old.

My first console was the Gameboy SP I only really played Pokemon though nothing else. I later got a Gamecube and it just kicked off from there all I would do is stay in the house and play games like SSB Melee and Mario Sunshine. I grew up and got many consoles but I went from PS3 to 360 since my friends had the 360 and then I got an xbox one which was the biggest waste of money I think. I finally got a PS4 last year and I have really enjoyed it. I have a huge variety of games some of them include GTA V, BO3, NHL 16, MLB The Show 16, and a lot more. I am a pretty competitive player I honestly hate losing but I kind of stopped after Black Ops 2 because I like the boots on the ground stuff. So now I play new CODs casually. I'll still try of course I'm just not into extremely competitive COD anymore. I enjoy playing with others, I hate playing alone and if I do play alone I get bored really fast. I'm also nice to everybody and easy to get along with. I'm not the type of person to start drama or beef with other people. I can also maintain good activity between HF and PS4. I do have a PC but I don't play games on it often I only browse youtube and HF or talk on skype. If you need any other information from me feel free to ask.

Thank you for reading my application.

What all games do you own? : Overwatch, GTA V, Black Ops 3, Jump Vs, The division, Rainbow Six Siege, NBA 2K16, Dying Light The Following edition and numerous amount of PSN games.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I have no competitive experience in gaming on the ps4 but I did play a bit of CS competitive

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : I have recently torn my ACL so I got a PS4 to occupy my time for the summer. I can dedicate probably around 8 hours a day (possibly more) until I start school again which would probably drop down to 2 hours

What do you expect out of the Synergy PS4 Gaming Sector : Honestly I hate playing alone and my friends grew out of gaming, so if they do play they will play for probably 1 hour or so. I'm looking for a community where I can participate in some casual (hopefully competitive) gaming. Also ever since getting my PS4 I haven't been able to feel that sensation of gaming from which I got when I use to play game. Maybe because I'm getting older and it's dying down or all my friends just grew out of it and I'm stuck in this by myself. That being said I really would like to ignite that once again and that's what I expect out of joining this group!

Why should you be accepted? : I should be accepted because I'm usually online 24/7. I'm from Canada so that means I'm nice. I'm also mature and most importantly... I don't suck at games. I haven't been in a group before so it'd be nice to finally be in one. Games are a lot more fun in a group and hopefully I'll get accepted.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : My console, app is on 24/7, this includes refreshing of HF so a lot.

What do you expect out of the Synergy PS4 Gaming Sector : Potential clan. Friendships.

Why should you be accepted? : Im active, friendly and not too bad of a player heh.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : I can play with them everyday, I'd be happy to play with a team rather than playing solo.

What do you expect out of the Synergy PS4 Gaming Sector : I expect another level of PS4 Gaming level.

Why should you be accepted? : Because I'm a PS4 Gamer, and I'd love to join such a group and become active with its members.

Age : (Please be aware, I don't care about your age in general, I only require you to act like a mature person)

What all games do you own? : Pretty much every popular game. (Overwatch, BO3, etc.)

Do you have any competitive experience? : I'm currently in the top 100 in the ranked leaderboards on MKX. I also play SFV at the same level. Though I'm not a top 100 player on that game yet. My skill and competitiveness carry on to other games. Especially FPS. If I get a good squad we can run 4s. I have also entered and placed well in the weekly ESL tournaments for said games. Competitive gaming has really been the core of my gameplay. I can also show proof of my rankings and ESL placings if necessary.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : Literally anytime. Especially since it's summer for me right now. I would say (during the school year) roughly 5 hours+ every day.

What do you expect out of the Synergy PS4 Gaming Sector : I expect good competition among ourselves as players and a chill atmosphere. I don't care how good anyone is, if you're rude and/or disrespectful then there's no point in playing with you. I expect this group to be a legitimately active group. Especially in this sector. A lot of groups try this gaming stuff and they all turn into nothing. I expect this group to be different.

Why should you be accepted? : I should be accepted because I'm chill af and I'm a huge competitor. I hate losing.
