I have it too. Contains like 370 pictures. It's extremely saturated though. That was a while ago though. Not sure if it's still as useless.

Also OP, did you copy this from someone's thread ? All the previews you are linking us on imgur have been uploaded a year ago. If you compiled all these packs from several threads then it would also explain why you couldn't be bothered getting the preview for some of them. Is it not a little misleading saying: "found these packs".

Anyways, good luck with the rep farming.
