BTCEXchangez - July 26, 2016, 2:08 pm

Will be taking my time applying as mostly I've been playing CS:GO solo and I believe I can achieve much more with a decent team around.

I'm mostly playing MM and sometimes free FaceIT.

Current rank is DMG and the max I've got to was LEM.

I have had about 3k hours back in 1.6 days and I started playing CS:GO like 2 years ago and currently have 700 hours on my main account.

Again I can dedicate a certain amount of time a day just to play with the newly created team and will show support throughout the whole journey.

420 Lord - July 28, 2016, 3:05 am

I am currently MG2 with 158 wins on CSGO, been playing for a long time and I am interested in joining the group and playing together with others from HF.

I'm not any special rank on CS or anything like that but I enjoy playing the game (mostly casual) with my friends.

My main account

I played CS:GO on my other account but since it got VAC banned (MW2 VAC ban, I was using prestige hack) I made new account.

I used to play CS a lot and I had quite a few skins but after I quit I sold & gambled most of them and bought GTA 5 and some other games.

Didn't play competitive at all (played 1 game with my friends because they needed 1 for premade and we won that one)

Now I just play casually & often complete achievements (legit, without any of those steam achievement unlockers shit or whatever)

Notable skins I had

Spoiler (Click to View)

Again,

I don't really play competitive and I can't offer you any videos/gameplays but I will be more than happy to play with fellow HF/Synergy members casually (maybe even competitive if I'm good enough for them)

Around 250 hours of CS:GO on my main & other account, also around 100 on CS 1.6 back in 2010/2011

I play bhop maps, guess there is no place for me. I have 1 world record on a bhop map. I am also silver 1 so I ain't really about the gun life.

Good luck with your group though, should be very HQ.

Xzavyer - July 31, 2016, 7:09 am

I started playing CS:GO in June and I have been playing a lot since I got the game.

I play single day, and I do a lot of stuff on the game. I surf, bhop, comp, arms race, 1v1 servers. just a wide variety of things.

Whenever I play comp I always end up having to solo que because I don't have many friends that play the game so I am looking for some people to play with.

I am Silver Elite Master (36 Comp Wins) I am also level 12 about to be 13.

Even if you don't accept me to be apart of your group, I would love to play with you guys.

Looking for more applicants. :)

Name: kappas0n on Steam & KappaS0N ingame.

Age: 16

Country: The Netherlands

How did you start playing CS:GO?: Well, i used to be a console gamer. Played a lot of COD and used to be very good at it. But it got boring. I saw a lot of CS:GO videos and i noticed the whole esports community was so much bigger and so much more mature and friendly then the call of duty community. I sold my PS4 and build my own gaming pc. Never regretted it. CS:GO is the best game i've ever played. It requires real skill & training to become which is far more different then call of duty. I've been playing CS:GO for a few months now. I've spent 300 hours playing so far and my rank is currently MG1. I expect to get MG2 soon. I'm sure with a party of good players who have a mic i'll get a higher rank.

Why should we accept you? I'm genuinely a nice dude. I don't rage at you for making a mistake or something like that. All my friends play console so i never really had a squad to play with. I'm only playing solo and playing with russians which can be annoying sometimes. That's why i'm looking to join Synergy to find other people who love CS:GO as much as i do. I'm just looking for some cool guys or girls to have fun with and play some matches. I'm hoping you guys want to give me a chance to be apart of Synergy.

Thanks.

STYLING - August 9, 2016, 6:01 am

Hey, I'm Styling and I have been playing source engine games for around 7 years. I played from CS1.6, CSS, A little bit Condition Zero, and now CS:GO. My current rank is Supreme on CS:GO, and with my smurf I am LE. Mainly playing competitive.

I'm 20 years old, and most of my CS:GO History consisted of a few interesting things. I actually used to make sv_cheats scripts for CS:S, so I have a very good understanding of how the game works, such as entities, commands, tips/tricks, and even exploits. I speak fluent english and I'm down for any game-mode on CS:GO. I am good at bhop,surf,kz, and the aforementioned competitive game-mode.

Why you should pick me? I'm really down to earth, and shits-and-giggles kind of guy, I will try to have fun in most of my CS:GO matches, and if seriousness is required (such as 5v5 etc) it will be given when needed. I am also very experienced with how the game works, and as I've said before I am pretty much very good at all of the game-modes that can be considered competitive. Bhop, surf, KZ, competitive, you name it. I also communicate quickly. I don't speak if it's not needed in a comp game, strict, concise information.

Thanks for reading my application.

Alias:
springie

Age:
17

My name is springie and I'm from New Zealand. I just assumed this came under European region as I doubt there will be any Oceania-based recruitment, and I was also pointed here by a close friend of whom is in the group. Anyway, I've been playing since beta and have a lot of experience in the game. I am about to join a CyberGamer team under a different alias (of which I will not announce publicly as I do not want to be harassed for being associated with a "hackforum"). I have ~3000 hours on CS:GO on my current account. You can PM me for links if you really must know. I'm an avid bopper and used to hold a few records on Garry's Mod back in the day, and one or two on Source.

I've always wanted to join a group on this website since SheepGang died down and I decided to come apply for Synergy. It seems like it can best cater for my needs and I could connect well with other gamers within the group. I would appreciate the opportunity to join the group and further develop my skills whilst playing with other users from this forum.

Cheers.

Kyzr - August 12, 2016, 11:22 pm

Hi, my name is Kyzr (short for Keizer) and I turned 18 a couple of months ago.

I live in the Netherlands and I have been playing Counterstrike for about one year now, and I still love the game to this date.

I play atleast 3/4 competitive games a day, and every single day I enjoy it as much as the day before.

I have a little over 1.2k hours now and my rank is MGE with 340 competitive wins.

The highest i've gotten is LE, but that only lasted a week or so.

My favorite maps are: "Dust 2, Cache, Overpass and Mirage".

I also spend a lot of time on surf and bhop maps.

I hope to play with you guys soon if I get the chance to do so ?

Also, I own a Teamspeak 3 server with 2 friends of mine, when I play I usually use that to communicate with people.

And here's a link to my steam profile if you want to take a look:

Hamware - August 13, 2016, 4:10 pm

Looks like the perfect group for me, I've been playing Counter Strike for over 5 years now, not even lying to you. I first found CS 1.6, but never really bothered to play it but got serious once I bought CSS, I used to only surf, trikz, and mix (using some mix site to find other 5v5s forgot the site lol). I would probably say I'm a hardcore CS gamer, it's mainly the only game I play, I never played COD or MW, never interested me like CS did. I've had multiple CSGO accounts, all have been sold or either VAC'd, I had the CSGO beta so I've basically been playing csgo since it was out.

<http://steamcommunity.com/id/steroiduser/> here's my current Steam profile (Main)

I feel I'd be quite active in the group, since it's the only game I play now a days.

Good looking group, thanks for readin' bitchez. ?

ChromeHD - August 14, 2016, 11:18 am

IGN ChromeRift

Age 19

Screenshots I Know it doesn't look like a lot but recently i started getting into the game a lot.

I started doing csgo marathons to rake in some hours playing the game with friends.

I consider my self to be pretty good and even better when i have a decent team with me.

Why i should be accepted I think i should be accepted because i'm starting to get really into the game and i think i would do a hell of alot better with players that are actually good.

Also i believe that i'm a good player to play with because i'm a fun guy i can keep you entertained during those annoying rounds with those shitty players. I also think that i could learn a few things from other members which would help me become a better player than i already am

Links <http://steamcommunity.com/id/ChrisH97/> - Reason i havent played it since the 3rd of july is because i only had my laptop with me while away and didnt have it installed but now im back.

Just want to say thanks for taking your time to read this application :P
