Thread: [Collection of CV's \(Curriculum Vitae's/Resume\) \[EVERYONE\]](#)

Qebi - July 12, 2016, 10:13 am

So I was thinking because half of HF's population is 16-25, most people here would be looking to go into new jobs, apprenticeships, courses, ect.

At the moment I hold about 18 different CV's for different sectors and industries from me and my friends, which people can use as template's.

The requirement for you to receive the CV's is for you to send in your own (don't worry you can remove your personal details and other stuff that can be linked back to you)

I will then add it to the collection (yet again making sure that non of your personal details are on there so it can in no way be linked back to you) for other's to use.

This is an excellent way of creating a better CV and at the same time contributing towards other's.

PM me if you want to receive them! ?

Everyone needs to re-read the OP

TO RECEIVE THEM YOU MUST SEND IN YOUR OWN, I'm not just giving out 18 professional CV's without adding more to the collection.
