Just got scammed by this guy $40.

His profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2371343>

I went first (obviously).

He's now changed his name from @Cole to

Seemed like a cool guy, he's added me to ignore I suppose as I cannot message them, don't deal with this user.

Oh, and keep the $40 you need it you broke bastard.

Here he is deleteing me from skype after I sent the $40 BTC

Proof it was him i was speaking to.

I added the member to a skype call with me and Cole, I was screensharing my hf and he was on camera. The user still doesn't believe that we are not 2 different people.

Fact still remains that @Cole scammed me, so this thread will get bumped forever until he gets the point.
