What's the best site to Stream anime, also what are some good anime series to start? I've finished Attack on Titan and thought it was pretty good, wanting to continue on my journey into the anime world. ?

Well, I don't watch anime, but I've cracked crunchyroll accounts, and people seem pretty consistent to get them for their anime purposes.

Kissanime.to has never let me down.

You should totally check out Akame ga Kill for a nice gory anime, or Guilty Crown for a bit of everything. Both have Dubbed versions, so if you don't like Japanese voices with subtitles that should suffice.

Crunchyroll is where I get my one piece from. I prefer subtitles.

I heard that crunchyroll is like "The Netflix for Anime".

It isn't free but there is accounts you can buy

Support the industry and buy a subscription to Crunchyroll - its 4.99 a month which is like a single lunch. Or a starbucks.

Watch other beginner anime, Mirai Nikki, One Punch Man, etc.

Like HappyMan said, Crunchyroll has an enormous selection of shows airing, aired, subbed, and some English dubbed. Worth the five bucks.

Also, probably everyone below me will link you an illegal streaming site, which is against site rules.

OT: Probably should mention Netflix has some pretty great shows on it as well if you already have a subscription to that.

I can't remember your username lmao

OT: OP we also have a few stickys to help you on your wonderful weeb adventure

I'm sure if you were an avid anime fan, like most of us, you'd pay for a subscription.

However, I'm sure you don't want to pay for something you might not even like. I suggest a free site until then.

I would say torrent. But if you don't want to, check out my friends site: Moetube.net

Its got a real clean layout and the ability to watch some shows with your friends!

Ehh is it possible to download full shows there, including subbed ones? ?

And where I watch anime? .. If my own Anime Streamer does not have it, then I gladly go to kissanime ?
