Thread: Where did this guy find an account with 25 games from 2003?

??????? - July 15, 2016, 6:16 am

I'm completely lost as to how this guy got an account that's over 12 years old with a fair amount of games bought back then. Is there a specific website I could buy these sort-of accounts?

Are you trolling, because that's extremely hard to believe? He just started "playing" CS:GO in 2015.

Lol.. There's people who sell these accounts. You can find a 12 year old account going for around $5 and even less than that. He bought an old account and simply made it his main so it has the badge/low steam id.

I got accounts with idled hours over 6k currently, nothing special.

For his sake i hope he created that account, would be a shame if someone locked it right?

Pretty silly putting all those skins on a bought account. Lets hope it is HIS account.

Probably not, looks like the account became active within 2015.

Email he uses for the account is: extasiept@hotmail.com - picture

I can do 1 ticket to steam support and he will be locked/suspended for good even when he has everything besides the HL1 key.

Not that i will do that, just stating it is that simple.

@ Brain Gear how did you find his account name?

Only 1 result came up, that was the hotmail and checked it on the steam website ?

And how do you know that it's not his account? I myself own an account from 2005 that I created. Anybody could have registered an account in 2003, everyone's not a kiddo that started playing in 2012 because of CS;GO, most of people were here way before CS;S and 1.6, and yeah that would be pretty stupid to put all of these skins on a bought account.

And about 5k of that was from scamming. How do I know? I was a victim. He was actually a member here, but was a multi and got banned. Not to mention that 2 other members here along with me got scammed by him.

PingersAndMash - July 18, 2016, 3:48 pm

Then lock his account if he scammed
