Wakka - July 15, 2016, 2:30 pm

That's the thread that has the details about the award... basically the first 5 people to get the award have an increased chance, but after that the chance will be lowered. Omni is doing some testing so nothing is finalized yet. It's similar to the Clover awards in the sense that you get the award by having a small % chance to win it while posting in the Pokemon Go section!

Grim - July 15, 2016, 2:31 pm

Dont you just have to walk away when you first create your account and then it has a chance of spawning? and then you just catch it

I got the app in the UK so there's literally nothing to do because nobody else has it here. Sad times.

u cant interact with others in the game yet anyway, so what would u need to do?

just get out and catch pokemons

if there are any free gyms, assign your own pokemon and defend it

I am having so much fun :DDD
