Thread: Enigma Recruitment

Stashyy - July 15, 2016, 4:02 pm

Group has been sold.

Therefore thread has been closed.

Giving out my thanks to everyone who applied. :)

Rosened - July 15, 2016, 4:11 pm

Hello, I'm Rosened And this is my application to Enigma. This group seems like a very fun and active group, and I would love to join. Personally, when I first heard about Pokemon Go I didn't think that it would have gotten so big. Was I wrong, I have met over 30 people playing around in my local neighborhood and park. This game in my opinion is one of the greatest things that has been apart of Earth in a long time. I find it crazy that everyone can all be put together and meet new people. I just started playing after all the hype came, and I really like the game. The excitement of playing the game is really great. I am level 11 and my have only been playing for a few days. My highest CP was about 570. Anyways, I would really appreciate if I got accepted to Enigma, I could learn a lot more about the game and it would be a very exciting time. Thanks!

Zexo - July 15, 2016, 4:12 pm

I like pokemon go and I enjoy walking around and talking to new people. I do tend to go outside more because of the app but it doesn't really push me all that hard. I find it fun to play when it's not too damn hot but I think it was a great game that is free.

zSerity - July 15, 2016, 4:37 pm

Nice recruitment hope to see some new active people!

Yassuo - July 15, 2016, 4:38 pm

Congratz to the people who apply man, Enigma is an amazing group

w?????illiam???? - July 15, 2016, 4:40 pm

I enjoy playing Pokemon GO because it gives me a good excuse to walk around for a few hours. Great way to have fun and get exercise at the same time. It's also very fascinating how many people play it, and how much Nintendo is making. Currently it is the #1 used app on iPhone, not sure about Android. It's cool to meet other people playing Pokemon GO when you're out walking, too. I believe the hype will die down in about 2-3 months, though.

I can be active in the sub-forum/any Skype/Discord chats, too.

Thanks. Btw, congrats again on that award. :^)

Roger Waters - July 15, 2016, 4:42 pm

Stashy you don't even play Pokemon lmao.

Ooze - July 15, 2016, 4:44 pm

IM the Joker, I like to Joke around a lot which either makes people love me or want to have sex with me, so my life is pretty difficult. I first got into Pokemon when i was 6 and my parents (for my birthday) gave me a Red Gameboy and Pokemon Ruby, which as the years went on that turned into the Nintendo DS and Pokemon Diamond, which is by far my favourite pokemon game ever made. I have been playing Go since the beta release however I live in a suburb so IM only level 9 (Team Mystic) I would love a group to which I can share and learn knowledge about the game.

See you soon

Duk. - July 15, 2016, 4:46 pm

Well, I'd love to join I have been playing go since the release and absolutely love it. I have played all the games up to the current ones and have been playing GO on my phone at night. (I live in the middle of no where so it'd be awkward) I'm Team Valor, level 7 so far and highest CP is like 210. I'd love to get to know people who play and learn all the tricks that there is for the game.

zombiepro1 - July 15, 2016, 4:57 pm

Pokemon Go, a way of life, a hobby, an addiction, never before have I seen a game change the way society acts in such a short time. Released for a mere week and a half, the changes of my daily life and the way society has interacted with each other has totally changed, for the better or worse in some eyes. Before this game, I would usually stay at home and just play games on my computer, lacking physical exertion. Now that this game has released, I have noticed a huge change in my activities, I go out more, hang out with friends often, and am just truly excited to leave my house. I have no-lifed this game, reaching level 17 and acquiring rare Pokemon such as Gyrados, Charzard, and much more. I would love to join this group to discuss my opinions and thoughts on this game. Thanks for taking the time to read this passage of my life.

I updated my application a little bit if you could re-read.

Good luck to those that apply. Enigma is a great group to be a part of!

I am Karhu. Programmer from the VB.NET section and also doing some freelance webdev. I love all tech, mostly Computer related. Oh and I am a Finnish politician. I started playing Pokemon GO when it released, even though it hasn't been out officially in Finland. The game is great, because I can go outside while doing it. While it hasn't been released here yet, there are still a ton of people walking outside and playing it. Even as I walk down the streets with a suit on a people recognize me as a politician, I get greeted by the game. I am proof that everyone can enjoy this game. I am an admin on pokemongoglobal.org also. Proving that I am serious about this game.

Looking forward on hearing more from you.

Mank - July 15, 2016, 5:38 pm

Hey, I am Mank. I hear a lot of good things about Enigma so that is why this caught my eye. I am a pretty good guy I like talking and meeting new people. I am also pretty funny and overall a good person to hangout with. I got Pokemon a week ago (reason it took so long is because I live in Canada so I had to find a method to get it) and I've been playing it quite a lot basically whenever I go to town or out for dinner I try and catch a few Pokemon and stuff. My best/favourite Pokemon is Nidorina (I know not the best but I like him) I caught him not too long ago. I'd really enjoy this group if I got accepted. Thanks :)

the wolf of blockchain - July 15, 2016, 5:39 pm

SHIFT? - July 15, 2016, 5:42 pm

I have been playing Pokemon since I was a kid so that is why I like Pokemon Go. Currently lvl 16 with my highest Pokemon at 1212 CP. I enjoy the game because I can go outside and socialize with new people who are interesting based on my experiences so far. It is also helping set records because nothing like this game has been seen besides Ingress. I play everyday because it is not boring to be outside compared to sitting in front of a screen all day.

BTCEXchangez - July 15, 2016, 6:03 pm

Since I have no groups to contribute to I'll give this a try.

So like to most people Pokemon has been my childhood and bringing up Pokemon GO really made me happy.

My first game was Pokemon Crystal and then I played many of 'em like: Pokemon Ruby, Black and White, X and Y and now Pokemon GO.

Pokemon GO is simply amazing, it's an augmented reality game combined with a GPS system and on top of that POKEMON!

The game is pretty rewarding if you contribute enough by simply walking around, and it has made me walk out more than I should.

Overall I plan to contribute to this game by sharing informative threads in the future and I have done so already with this so far:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5339707>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5339811>

If I get a chance to join this group I'll be up for a discussion with other members at any time and contribute to it to spread out it's name even more! :)

Vince - July 15, 2016, 9:37 pm

I am sure everyone will be posting the same shit as everyone else in hopes of getting into the group strictly on Pokemon Go, but hopefully most try to set themselves apart from others. I mainly love Pokemon Go because it brings back the nostalgic feeling from when I was a kid playing the original games on my Gameboy and watching the TV show. It literally is the closest thing you will get to a Pokemon MMO like most have been calling for. It is actually pushing people to be active and go out and do things. It's pushing activity to the site. It is doing a lot of positive things for something as simple as catching Pokemon while walking around outside. That and I also get to see who nerds out on Pokemon like me. Hell, I even have a pokemon related minecraft server going as well. Hence the signature. I literally could go about why I like the game, but this pretty much sums it up.

Splice - July 15, 2016, 10:07 pm

I am seriously addicted to pokemon go. I have been playing it non stop pretty much well as much as i can. I have been walking around 8 -10 miles a day searching for pokemon and going to pokestops. I also drive to different locations, like the beach today to get some new water type pokemon. I love that it's a game that brings me back to my childhood and kinda makes me feel like i am a kid again. I love that it brings new people together. I have met so many new people because of the game. It also gives people reasons to go out and be healthy and get some exercise. I am grinding this game hard and wont be stopping anytime soon....

MATT?HEW - July 15, 2016, 10:07 pm im 15, I want to join Enigma because I have 0 friends and need a new community to be involved in, right now I got no one :(

I LIKE THIS GAME CAUSE I CAN WALK UP TO A GUYS GYM TAKE THAT SHIT THEN LOOK HIM DEAD ASS IN THE FACE LIKE YOU A BITCH, BITCH.

THIS GAME IS TAKING OVER MY LIFE

EDIT: I AM ALSO VERY ALONE AND NEED TO TALK TO PEOPLE.

-Aspect- - July 15, 2016, 10:22 pm

Hello, I am Aspect. I like Pokemon Go because it is getting a lot of people out and active in there community. It is bringing together groups of people who wouldn't have met originally. along with this is also giving people a good excuse to exercise and stay in shape. I'd like to join Enigma's Pokemon Go section for the sense of community.

Null - July 16, 2016, 1:41 am

Hey,
I love playing Pokemon me and my friends hang out together comparing stats and capturing Pokemons, we have had most gym in our neighborhood raided ? , Pokemon go is a great game it is uniting people, since its release most people have been playing together and shit xD.
I would love to join this group and meet people with similar interests and share some tips about th game.

CULTSWEGMAFIA - July 16, 2016, 1:45 am

I'd like to join because i love all pokemon games. not just pokemon go. I've been playing pokemon since I was younger and I think Pokemon GO is the next best thing. I really enjoy pokemon go and i often walk miles for pokemon go. At the end of the day i have usually hatched a few eggs :) It would be great to join a group that has a lot of Pokemon GO players and maybe learn more from them all.

Vassilios - July 16, 2016, 3:04 am

Hello lads and ladies, I am Uprising. I have been playing Pokemon since I was little and it was a dream of mine to become a trainer one day and basically this game satisfies my dreams up to a point. I am level 16 currently, don't play that much but yesterday Summer officially started for me so I will be more active. I have found a lot of great people while playing Pokemon GO and it is generally a lot of fun. I would love to join this group so I can chat with people that like Pokemon too and generally meet and make new friends.

Looking forward for your response and thank you for taking the time to read this!

'OverSight - July 16, 2016, 8:15 am

Heya, my name is OverSight, I used to be pretty closed in just playing video games on my computer or studying, eating at home, never a dead phone really cause it was always plugged in, but I still have friends from school who are similar to me, and we just play together and its still pretty fun. But ever since pokemongo came out, it really changed my life. I started going out, walking 2-5km just to get to a gym, going down to the beach with my friends to go hunt for pokemon, and as a group we're close than ever before. I've become pretty obsessed with this game as I feel like I'm running through my childhood again. Now, I'd like to find more new friends with the same interest and I hope to share experiences here as well.

Bugged Genius - July 16, 2016, 8:40 am

Pokemon Go is my cocaine i play it somuch and it just got officially released in my country and i think i should be able to join since i know alot about it and dont mind helping less experienced people.

+Nemesis - July 16, 2016, 8:42 am

I'm a 19 year old pokemon trainer from belgium reliving my childhood dream of catching them all. Since the day I became a pokemon trainer I've already defeated over 20 Gyms and I'm known in my hometown as "LittleFucktard" which is a great compliment for a competitive pokemon trainer like me. I've also recently caught an Electabuzz which I have named after Enigma. I also have a lot of confidence in my skillset. First of all I've mastered the art of battling (tutorial here) and I can easily catch any pokemon with my extreme curve balls while I'm riding a car at the same time.

I hope this is enough to convince you to let me in. LittleFucktard out.

Hiya! My name is Ameer and you're probably sick and tired of hearing about how people grew up with Pokemon and how 'they're the best' and all however, I am an authentic Pokemon master when it comes to Pokemon. I've been playing since I was 3 when my dad gave me a gameboy and Pokemon blue from his game shop (which he still owns today!). Ever since I've been playing every new pokemon game since release and have never backtracked. I am currently a Pokemon live streamer and I'm well known in the Pokemon community on twitch and youtube. I have a lot of experience and I know a lot about Pokemon go as well! I would love to join in discussions about it as I don't really have anyone to talk about the rare findings around my town and just fun stuff. If you would like to know my stream or more about me please feel free to contact me!

Hello, my name is TheFiddler. I played the Game Boy games/DS games when I was younger and now I sort of collect the cards. I enjoy playing Pokemon Go, as it is actually not a bad game and really brings back a lot of nostalgia. I am getting more and more active on Hack Forums and I thinking being in a group dedicated to POGO will help me advance further into the game and meet some friends along the way.

Thanks for the consideration.

This is maybe the only group I have a chance of getting in to I guess.

I love Pokémon and played it every since Pokémon Red on Gameboy,

Currently after Pokémon GO release so do I play it a lot, like a lot. More than a lot of people im pretty sure,

Its a great game and my highest cp is currently 1820 (arcanine) but I have a hitmonlee right behind him

skelly76 - July 17, 2016, 12:57 am

Chance of getting accepted is probably under 10% right now.

Anyway I've been playing Pokemon for years and when this game came out I hit level 19 in 3 days. Pokemon is awesome.

How are you expecting a paragraph I literally have nothing else to say, I could like make up dumb stuff but c'mon.

Yung Metro - July 17, 2016, 1:04 am

I live in a nice sized city where I can help farm pokemon. I also am very lucky as you can see I have the pokemon award and I will give my method on making money playing pokemon go for free to the group here <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5339015>

I have no soul and I only go outside the house with an umbrella black makeup on and with 3 cats. I play pokemon Go with my only friend. His name is Garcia. He is madeup. He is also anorexic like me.

I like to skin moths in my past time and also like to skip in the playgrounds after I smoke crushed up Spice so I can be cool like the 420 stoners.

I would love to get in Engima to meet new friends and meet new adventures and learn new ways to skin moths, flies, mossys and bees.

Hello, I'm Chucky and this is my application. I personally love pokemon go because of the community. Everyone is so nice and helpful, like today 2 guys walked up to me and told me there was a Jolteon in the parking lot and there actually was and I caught it! I also have a lot of respect for Nintendo, since they released this game at the perfect time, during the summer when everyone especially wants to be lazy and stay indoors. God bless.

Monostable555 - July 17, 2016, 1:23 am

I'm really not spectacular in any way, I am always positive and helpful and I try my absolute best to be HQ!

The reason why I like Pokémon go is because it gets most people out of their basements and out in the world of exploring! I've always wanted to catch Pokémon's ever since I was a little kid and now I finally can! I'm not a super high level in Pokémon go since my phone almost melts when I play, but I'm still really interested in joining a group with other active players!

Wyatt Garcia - July 17, 2016, 7:05 pm

Well I actually play Pokemon GO every single day, play it with my friends and always loving meeting new people while playing Pokemon GO.

I always watch videos of it aswell, this group would be perfect for me; I can help other members and also look for tips myself aswell!

I currently also have Pokemon GO eBook and yeah I just love the game :) I've been playing Pokemon GO almost after it came, quite some time :)

Its pretty much my hobby and I'm really addicted to it and so are my friends, when I have nothing to do I will just go play Pokemon GO.

Spent about 40$ on the game aswell ?

Would be super-awesome to be in this group, I love the userbar so much I think its my favorite!

I would share my experiences of playing the game and also help other users as I said.

Thank you ?

SkullCandy - July 17, 2016, 7:58 pm

I love Pokemon GO; it brings everyone together. Just the other day I walked down to the local Botanical Gardens and there was over 40 people there on their phones playing Pokemon. I walked past 20 people all standing around a gym and as I walked past a group called out to me and asked "what team are you on?"; I replied with "Team Mystic"; i had never met these people before but as soon as I said this they came over and were like omg we need your help, we are also team mystic and we need to kill this guys Pincir - it was 700 health left. I came in, helped them battle - we won and then some guys from team Instinct took it from us five seconds later..... long story short, i took my first gym for five seconds, had loads of fun and met 3 new friends.

It gets people out and active while still engaging in our nerdy world - I got two very rare pokemon yesterday and am very happy about it! I played through all the games since the first ones on gameboy and have always loved pokemon. Oh yeah - enough about Pokemon. I am a 17 y/o from Australia and HF is my life <3 so is anime :P

Doctor Fate - July 17, 2016, 11:24 pm

Hi my name is Heart of Stone or HoS. I love pokemon go because it's unlike any mobile game out right now and I'm sick of the same model mobile games seem to be conforming to. Not only that the AR creates some sense of realism which is tight. Well, that's about it but accept me to join me for the search for Mewtwo ?

Hi im crazy1s,

Im one of those guys from the late 80s that started off with the original gameboy,you know back when you had to spray paint it to have something different. Anyways the first pokemon game i had was red version,while a local friend at that time had blue. Used to go over to his house and hook up the trusty transfer cable and trade pokemon back and forth. Since then ive played just about every release i could minus some of the money hungry versions of the game like "pokemon snap". Im now level 10 on POGO after starting on release date. I have my own kids so i dont get to play all the time or as much as id like but i do enjoy playing when i can. Thanks for reading!

Hey Stashy,

So I am a 17 year old currently looking into comptuer science with a massive passion for pokemon, I was very privileged to get pokemon GO as a beta tester and loved the hell out of it!

I am currently spending around 5 hours straight on this game a day not to take into account the constant egg hatching that I am completing.

As of right now I am level 29 and have 100% completion of the pokedex :D

I would really love the opportunity to be a part of the Pokemon division as this is currently my life.

I am really enjoying this game and feel as though my knowledge could be a huge benefit to Enigma and the group as a whole!

Hi, I'm 18 years old and have a lot of dedication towards Pokemon GO. The reason why I like Pokemon GO so much is because it gives you something to work towards day in and day out. Currently I have 134 out of 145 obtainable Pokemon in the Pokedex. I am level 22, almost 23 as I write this, put about 10-14 hours a day into the game, don't have any plans to cut back on this game anytime soon.

I'd love to join your group and meet others who have the same passion towards the game as I do.

Thanks.

.Astro - July 20, 2016, 2:55 am

I had originally started playing Pokemon as a kid. I've always liked the games, the show, and the movies they would put out there. Now as a 17 year old, almost 18 this app has adequately brought to life those childhood games and shows that as a kid, I've always wanted to experience. Despite some minor set backs which are said to be fixed in upcoming patches, Pokemon Go has brought to life a new type of audience. This app is fun for everyone, even people who've never played like some of my friends who had recently installed the app and enjoy it. Whether you've played the games, watched the shows or movies, read the manga, or not, you'll enjoy it. It's almost like a universal language. Places across the city you'll see people sitting there near PokeStops with lures playing together, whether they know them or not. People also host "lure parties" such as on my college campus where there are Pokestops clumped together. It's a great way to interact with people and help each other out when it comes to finding new Pokemon or just learning tips and tricks about the game in general, especially if you just started playing. It's almost like a whole new type of socialization. Additionally, this app has also gotten so many people to become more active with their lifestyle. Whether they want to hatch an egg, capture a gym, catch some Pokemon, find some Pokestops, they're getting up and moving. This is something that other companies weren't able to do. The closest thing to "active gaming" I can think of that people rave about would be Just Dance, but that barely even compares, if it even does.

Vegeta - July 24, 2016, 12:36 pm

Been playing Pokemon go since the release and would love to talk about it with some people as most of my real life friends thinks it's nerdy, but I refuse to stop playing just cause it was such a neat idea and mainly addicting as hell. Trying to get my little brother into it but he's lazy and rather play X/Y on the DS until the new one comes out lol. It's also nice because I need to get some strength back into my knee so walking around town and stuff really isn't a big deal when I can just play pokemon go. I'd love to join and talk about pokemon all day.

Completely understood if I am declined, but thanks for the opportunity to enter.

Dessie - July 24, 2016, 5:07 pm

Hya Stash, Dessie here, people call me tattare because man, it's cool. I love to speak to new ppl about the game, discuss and share tips about it. Anyways, I can say that I share the same love to Pokemon/Pokemon go as many in this group I assume. Since I was a toddler I've loved Pokemon and that just speaks for it. Well I've owned almost all of the Pokemon gameboy games and this is a great addition to the game history. I will stay as active as possible, when I enjoy something and want to talk about it ofc I'll. Hope to be able to join and see some of you guys in there. Happy pogo hunting lel.

Enigma is a fantastic group to be in. Would definitely recommend it if you're looking for some friends to talk about Pokemon with.

BR?ND?N - July 25, 2016, 1:30 am

I love Pokemon GO because it brings me back to when I was a child, when I dreamed of the game I held in my hand becoming a reality one day. Pokemon GO is like my childhood dream coming true. I get to travel around, catching Pokemon. It's incredible. My city has even become a better place, the local zoo hosted a Pokemon GO night, I saw a group of people playing Pokemon GO downtown, ever since this game came out my city became united. The parks are full of trainers and its good to see people playing a simple game together instead of shooting each other up. My city is ridden with murders and drugs and now all I see on the 5 o' clock news is "Pokemon GO event happening here" or "Everyone is enjoying this new game that is sweeping over the city". It makes me happy to see everyone coming together and for me thats what makes this game so special. It is more than just a game.

I'd love to join Enigma and talk with other Pokemon GO players. Thanks for reading my paragraph :)

D4WID - July 26, 2016, 4:45 pm

Demonstrate - July 30, 2016, 2:29 am

I love Pokemon as a franchise in general. I've grown up watching it, playing the games, collecting the toys etc. Lately I've been botting on a secondary account for Pokemon Go, but my main is a legit account that I have not tampered with. I'm planning to get Pokemon Go Plus once it's released (bummer that it got pushed back to September 30) and I've played every Pokemon Game that has been out except for the newer games on the 3DS. I'm a member of Team Yellow and I love to go around my city and take over gyms with my main account with friends because it's the best, I also love discussing the future of the game, helping people out with botting issues (Necrobot), and speaking about Pokemon in general.

WienerNips - July 30, 2016, 6:03 pm

Love Pokemon Go! I run a Facebook group consisting of hundreds of people where we play Pokemon Go together irl. And I also own of the biggest threads on Pokemon Go related to botting and helping a lot of people set it up.

I've been on the forum for a while now (late 2011). The only group I've ever been in was Instinct, and honestly, I wish we were still around; our sub forum was incredibly active and the members were generally pretty interesting.

Anyway, after Instinct disbanded, I kinda' lost the motivation to come back to Hack Forums. However, Pokemon Go has brought me back and I've been finding myself more active and genuinely excited to check out what has changed or what is new in the Pokemon Go sub forum.

As far as the game itself is concerned, I've played every Pokemon game from the original Red, Blue and Yellow, to the newer ORAS.

So naturally, Pokemon Go was a must have for me. I've been playing it pretty much non-stop since launch day; it's addicting going out with friends to catch Pokemon.

On my main 100% genuine account, I'm level 25 and have three 2k+ Dragonites.

Hi i've been on HF since 01-07-2016.

I never been in any group before, because I wasn't really active on the forum but since one month

I'm really active.

I'm searching for a group to share, debate, discuss, especially a group composed of PokemonGo's players.

I'm 18 old from New Caledonia, I speak French and English, I went to school in Australia where I learnt english.

I make some programs in C++, .NET or Java or some websites (just for fun this is my passion), I have some little skills in programmation but anyway I love playing PokemonGo when I go outside and this is why I would to join you.

Thank you in advance, cordially Nathan aka Ruskie Banana

Goku???? - August 2, 2016, 1:50 am

Pokemon Go, what more can I say about it? As a 90's kid growing up in an era where cartoons were a major contributor to my every day decisions, to be able to experience something so close to catching Pokemon, it's just an amazing experience. I do go out now and then when I'm free to catch Pokemon with a bunch of my friends, so you can only imagine how awesome the experience will be when they release player vs player battles! I am currently level 27 and I am only 2 pokemon away from having a full Pokedex (Without the regional locked pokemon). I hope one day to become known around my area as "that guy" who invests his time in things that he loves, even if it's only pixelated beasts. Catch 'em all!

Tree of Life - August 2, 2016, 5:29 am

To start off, my name is Dylan, I am 18 and live in Australia. I am writing to you as I'd love to be accepted into the group.

Firstly, the reason I love playing the game so much is that it has brought A LOT of people together. So the community aspect of Pokemon Go is something I cherish and appreciate.

Secondly, it's super fun to get outdoors and go looking for Pokemon to catch, then compare with friends and others.

Thirdly, being in this group will only enhance the enjoyment I get from Pokemon Go as I would be in a group with others with similar interests, where we can share stories and information about the game.

I'd like to note that I have experience with bots and snipers for Pokemon Go, I have 2 accounts. One which is level 30 and has been botted/sniped, and my other which is level 13 and 100% legitimate.

Thank you for taking the time to read my application. I look forward to speaking to you and others in the group more.

Cold Hearted - August 3, 2016, 1:20 am

To start off, Pokemon GO has been one of my biggest hypes yet. Being an avid Pokemon fan, my inner child went crazy.

I play Pokemon GO at any time I can, and I love talking about it. I work in a game shop and there are a lot of customers who come in playing it, it's a great conversation starter and honestly, it's amazing to see everyone talking about Pokemon again.

I've played every Pokemon game since the start and I know Pokemon GO is very different, but it's still so unique. Who would've thought that something like this would be released this early on? I think every adult who grew up playing Pokemon has screamed irl.

I believe that this group would fit my needs as most of my posts are about Pokemon GO and I know a lot of tips, tricks and successfull strategies to make the Pokemon GO experience a lot better.

Would be brilliant to get into this group mate, also the userbar is a plus as it looks very unique. Adds to the group chemistry.

Thanks for the oppurtunity, look forward to seeing more.

Heartboy - August 3, 2016, 8:06 am

Where do I even begin? Well the story of this kid doesn't start out in Pallet Town, but a small town in the mid-west. I've been a fan of Pokemon ever since I was a kid. I remember collecting the cards as everyone else from the 90's did and bought every VHS I could find. I never stopped playing it, even as I grew to be the young man that I am today I still play. After the release of Pokemon GO, I was very skeptical if it would truly capture the essence of Pokemon.

I was glad to see that the game that I feared to be a disaster actually ended up bringing a lot of joy to my life. I used to only socialize every once in a while with other people, now I'm out every night catching Pokemon with everyone in the neighborhood! I only wish that we could have Pokemon battles with our friends you know? All in all I could go on for hours about Pokemon and why I love it so much. Pokemon has got me through good and bad times in my life and I hope they continue to be apart of my life until I grow old. It would also be nice to talk to some other fellow Pokemon lovers too! (P.s. I'm really jealous that I don't know how to obtain the Pokemon badge on HF... ?)

Damp - August 3, 2016, 3:21 pm

Pokemon Go is a fantastic game, in just a week the game had already people walking around in parking lots trying to catch a damn pikachu. Hell, even in my yard kids walk and try to catch pokemon. The game started out pretty weak with all of the bugs and crashes, but a lot of these small glitch's are beginning to be patched and it's getting better. Hopefully they can implement trading before too long and make the game more interactive. So far, I have gained quite a lot of progress within the game, I have my main account that I haven't botted on at level 24 with 100 of the pokemon in my pokedex. I'd love to interact with other players, and hear their thoughts and opinions on the game.

Thank you for taking the time to read this. ?

Krusty. - August 3, 2016, 6:15 pm

Pokemon go has honestly been a really fun experience since it has been released. It has motivated me to go outside and overall have fun. I've met many cool people through the game. It allows me to socialize which i also love a lot. I hope this game lasts for a couple of years, and I hope games in the future will implement this real life experience as well, because it is honestly amazing. It also disproves that technology makes us lazy, when like literally everyone I see plays the game. Also, it has been better for HF. It made many members more active on the website, and also gives me a reason to post as well. Honestly this game has so many positives and no negatives at all. Condolences to the victims of the robberies and stuff like that associated with the game though, this is why I love this game. Thanks for reading :)

Hello, My name is Planet of the Vapes. Firstly let me tell you abit about myself, i will be 22 years of age in 8 days, i currently work as a crusher operator on a wash plant. My favourite food is Chicken tikka madras. I love football, best thing i ever did was stopped smoking.

Pokemon had been a massive part of my life when i was younger, i use to watch all of the movies, series and play all the games on gameboy, i was obsessed when i was younger. Eventually pokemon just wasnt as popular any more until POKEMON GO !!. Once a friend told me about this game i got excited immediately. I downloaded the game and for next 3-4hours i was out hunting for pokemon. My first rare pokemon was gyarados, i was so happy when i captured this. I took to the game very quickly, started to play it in work etc. Im currently level 35 with lots of rare pokemon. Im still enjoying the game just as much if not even more. Im looking forward to trading pokemon update come out as this is going to be amazing. It would be great to join this group and learn new things from other members which has so much love for this game as i do.

Before I start, thanks for reading this Stashy.

My name is Brenden. I'm a 17 year old American from the hell known as Southern Arizona. I'm an active gamer (but no where near good enough to apply for Enigma's gaming teams). I'm a very active member on HF, and I enjoy helping people with e-whoring advice and giving back with upgrades (i've done 2) and contest (also 2). I want to join a group, it's currently my main goal on HF. I feel like Enigma is a chill group full of great people and Stashy seems like a chill leader. People have said Enigma is a great group to join which is why i've been so persistent in trying to get in (I applied back when this was Pokemon GO). I'd love to join, as would many others. I hope you choose me over the rest, you'd be making the right choice ;)

Once again, thanks for looking this over Stashy. I hope to join and be talking with all of you, soon :)

A bit about myself and why I want to be in the group;

I'm a graphics designer, medical professional and gamer at heart. I enjoy PC gaming the most, though I do own several console platforms. I have been on Hack Forums for quite sometime now, so I've picked up various skills from coding to marketing as well as GFX and advertising. I am a man of many skills, but wish to hopefully seek more and share what knowledge I have with others throughout the group. The reason I wish to join Enigma is because this seems like a very unique group with the plethora of subsections offered. I would like to contribute in anyway I can possible. I feel like I would be a beneficial edition to the group and there is no reason why I wouldn't. ? This seems like a group I could be actively dedicated to and one that seems to have some very like minded individuals who all share similar interests.

Thank you for the consideration regardless & appreciate the review ?

Hello, I am Gage. Well here is a little bit about me I run social media accounts from YouTubes to Instagrams with over 500k followers. I also started getting in the "hacking" scene 4 years ago from finding vulnerabilities (xss,sql). I like to "hack" original username accounts in my free time. Also celebrity accounts, pretty much anything rare. In my free I play PC games like CS:GO I have been playing for years. If I got accepted to Enigma I believe I could help the group a lot. From just wearing the userbar 24/7 and doing giveaways under the name. Also I am on for 6+ hours a day, I am a really nice person and am always down to help members out. Thanks :)

and yeah stashy is my friend so yeah accept me

Cold Hearted - August 6, 2016, 3:35 am

Seeing as this is now general recruitment and not just Pokemon GO anymore, I'll apply again as this group still catches my interest.

My name is Dan, I have experience in graphics, HTML, Building up large social media accounts and I have a passion for gaming. I've done my absolute best to be as high quality as possible since joining HackForums and I believe that I have what it takes to be taken into the group.

I will be releasing out extra tutorials & guidelines for this group especially which nobody else will see and I will do my absolute best to stay high quality.

I'd also like to see what the group holds and hopefully I can learn / expand my knowledge on a few things, as well as helping any members of the group if they may need it.

It will basically give me that extra umph on HackForums right now, seeing as I'm not an upgraded member at the moment. I would love to be part of this group, thank you. ?

Hello, I'm RealMafia(aka Jad), and this is my application to Enigma. Let me talk a little bit about myself first, I am 16 years old gamer, I like running websites, and my best hobby is Photographing. I recently bought a camera and started having some great pictures. Now let me talk about general things: This group seems a like very chill group and active at the same time. Why am I applying? Just because I'd like to meet new people, and from what I've heard, Enigma members are good people that I should meet. I think I will be accepted because I am a chill guy too. Had some problems on HF before, but now it's all good. Resolved everything. (P.S: Never had scam reports or community alerts). I would really appreciate it if you take me into consideration.

Hello, My name is Rexona, yes Rexona. Im from Spain, and im gonna explain one history about my life.

My friends put me that name when a game called Agar.io goes out and starts being famous. My friend called David & me we say, "Why we put that normal names and we create another?" And he put the name of "Fenistil" & me "Rexona". We became more friends and we go to a game called "MineCraft" and around 1 year playing, we start our server. The server became famous 1 week and we make a network. All was going very pretty but 1 day come to our server, some guys called "hackers" (skids) & and he started to DDoS our server and we need it to close it.

Thanks for reading!

?etro - August 9, 2016, 1:32 pm

I would love to be in this group. I love video games, and I have been into them since middle school. I originally started off with the usual COD series during middle school. Bought an HD PVR. I actually have a funny story about that. I paid for 2 day shipping, and I remember it was like a ridiculous amount for some reason because Prime wasn't around back then. When it was in my city and out for delivery, then began one of the biggest winter storms we have ever seen. I was eagerly waiting, but it wasn't delivered for that day. This storm continued along with a deep freeze for about 2 weeks. We had no school, and everyday I was obsessively checking the tracking status. It was delayed and out for delivery some days, but it kept getting pushed back because of bad weather. My dad actually told me "if you don't have school, I doubt your package will be delivered".

Anyways, I used to make edits, was a respected editor. Made it on EditorsClub, when that was around. Was in sub boxes of FaZe and optic members on YouTube. I can show you a lot of my edits, I have them as private on my profile. I still play COD and Skate 3 on Xbox 360, and I play some ski games on my computer. I would love to join this group because I can provide cool, useful, unique things for games, such as web based tools, services, and I would love to play some of the games I play with members of HF. I have never been in a group, and I'd really like to make Enigma my first.

Enigma Group Application

Hi, I'm rather new around here on HF, but I'm being as active as I can and was hoping to join Enigma because it seems like a really HQ and cool user group. I am a 23 year old major computer and tech enthusiast and I am currently studying for my Masters in Uni. I spend a minimum of 3 hours daily on HF browsing and posting, and on weekends as well as holidays that goes up to almost 7 hours a day at times. I am experienced in HTML and CSS coding, and have hosted my own forum before as well as created multiple websites as a freelancer. I don't mind providing proof of my work through PM if interested, or I can create a sample web page or whatever as a test to prove my abilities. I am also getting into CPA and PPI, and social media growing, so I will be becoming proficient in that after some time. I hope to extend my knowledge and share it with members in the Enigma group, as well as write guides and other content for the subforum to help people learn new stuff. I just wanna say thanks for taking the time to read and consider my application, and hope that despite my short time here at HF I might be considered for your group ?

Good luck to Everyone Applying!

STYLING - August 11, 2016, 7:06 am

Hi, my name's Styling and I'm 21. I want to join Enigma because it seems like a very friendly-oriented group, and I feel like I can contribute a lot to it by sharing my knowledge as well as learning new things. I'm a very down-to-earth guy, and will try to help everyone if I know the subject spoken about.

I like to hav shits and giggles on pretty much everything, but I am serious when need be. I play CS:GO/TF2/RuneScape competitively, but also for fun (Surf,Bhop,etc)

Thanks!

Vegeta - August 11, 2016, 7:04 pm

Great group guys come on in and join!

Younis Khan - August 11, 2016, 7:27 pm

Hi there, my name is Maaz. I'm a 14 year old skid who wants to join Enigma because groups and clans seem fucking cool and I've never been in one. I've been registered on HackForums for 2 years. I can't really contribute much to the group if I'm honest. I'm learning C#. I've got no talent that would be of use here. Although, I'm pretty fucking good at cricket. If you're American, you probably don't know what I'm talking about. I have 4 rep, so clearly I'm a pretty reputable user. I would game a lot but consoles aren't my thing and my computer is /really/ fucking bad. I can't even play Pokemon GO because I have a Windows Phone. So yeah, I'm a useless pleb, please let me join.

Bro like I said, it's all about how you look with your shirt off, upload a picture.

debug - August 11, 2016, 7:58 pm

hi, I'm debug.

I have been a member of HF since 2012. I have been programming since ~2009, and I'm always learning more. Programming, reverse engineering and gaming are my main interests. I like to connect the three and create game cheats for fun. I also specialize in .NET security. Knowing how to reverse engineer .NET applications gives me an edge when it comes to security.

I have been in a few groups before, but all of them were low quality or fell apart. I would really like to be a part of a quality group, where I can learn, teach, and communicate with a cool group of people.

If I were accepted, I could offer services with regards to .NET security, helping group members secure their programs sold on HF. This would prevent cracking/leaking to help prevent any loss of sales.

You can see many of my contributions here: ProxEZ Source Code - The ultimate proxy solution | Rotator/Scraper/Checker

I hope you consider me in your acceptance!

The Unloved - August 12, 2016, 10:26 am

Hi I'm The Unloved and this is my app for Enigma, I want to join and think I should be accepted because I'm a hardcore gamer, It's mostly all I do and I'm flexible with what games I play so I can play whatever Enigma is playing. I'm 17 and I do have a microphone. I'm skilled in most guys I play if this group ever decides to have a competitive team.

Games I'm currently playing:

Overwatch, Black Desert Online, Heroes of the storm, CSGO ?

SIM-2848947 - August 12, 2016, 4:38 pm

I'm a guitar playing, application developing, social interaction failing twat who calls himself RYDIOO online for some strange reason. Hello. There's not much else to say about me really but I'm just looking for more ways to get involved with HF and I feel being part of the group could help me achieve this goal. Also, if I am accepted I will make a 30 second jingle about how Enigma is better than a group of your choice! (Not kidding, I will go that low to get in)

Thank you for your time.

Seeing as this is now general recruitment and not just Pokemon GO anymore, I'll apply again as this group still catches my interest.

My name is Dan, I have experience in graphics, HTML, Building up large social media accounts and I have a passion for gaming. I've done my absolute best to be as high quality as possible since joining HackForums and I believe that I have what it takes to be taken into the group.

I will be releasing out extra tutorials & guidelines for this group especially which nobody else will see and I will do my absolute best to stay high quality.

I'd also like to see what the group holds and hopefully I can learn / expand my knowledge on a few things, as well as helping any members of the group if they may need it.

It will basically give me that extra umph on HackForums right now, seeing as I'm not an upgraded member at the moment. I would love to be part of this group, thank you. ?

Accepted

Looking for more apps.

Looking for someone who will be active and not some UBWhore.

Enigma

ABOUT ME:

Hi! My name is Starved, or Logan. I'm 18 years old.

I'm currently in college for Business Management and Marketing.

However, I am also skilled in Graphics, Basic Coding, Accounting, and Social Media.

Extra Information:

I spend on average 7 hours a day on Hackforums.
I do not have any major threads worth noting,
However I do have small sales that have been made.
If I am accepted into Enigma, I can promise to contribute great amounts of time and effort to give as much back to the group as I can.
As I may not be able to offer as many giveaways with money as others can,
I can offer great amounts of knowledge that I have.
I am willing to help with anything that I know about,
and if I don't know about it, I make it my business to learn so I can help in the future.

DriveThru - August 18, 2016, 8:19 pm

Im LazyWorkers... Despite the username I am not really "lazy" and I really like to make money. I am really good with instagram and have been growing stat accounts for years. (Sold a 120k for $1800 when I was 15). Selling that account was a pretty cool accomplishment and I ended up buying a apple developer account, making an app, and charging $2 per download and used instagram to promote it. I ended up making the original investment back in one day. I am pretty smart and like to be active on hackforums. Hope you consider me!

Sooty - August 20, 2016, 4:28 am

Hello I'm bribe, currently I attend high school as a jounior that's taking classes in CAD(computer-aided-design) and engineering. I'm a very avid learned and intent listener, who's great with group activities and situations. During the weekends I typically play all sorts of video games from Fps to arcade. I would like to join enigma because it's been my goal to meet and communicate with plenty of people and gain knowledge in the process. I would also like to help with any group projects that may have and to spread enigma in a positive way through Hf. Thanks for considering my app., have a nice day!

Hamekaze - August 20, 2016, 8:31 pm

I'm 19 years old and I enjoy Graphic Designing (proficient in Cinema4D, Maya, Photoshop, and After Effects) as well as Programming (Java, TypeScript, Python, and HTML/CSS). I look forward to meeting new people as well as learning new things from the group. I feel like I can add more dynamic to the group in terms of modelling and rigging. Thanks for taking the time to read my application.

BR?ND?N - August 20, 2016, 8:53 pm

I'm still very much interested in this group. I have submitted two or so paragraphs before stating this interest. I just wish to let Engima know that I'am truly sincere about my desire to contribute to the group.

I've been an active member of HackForums for about 4 years (almost 5) and in that time I've only been in one other group. I was involved in The Void Official group from start to finish and often engaged in the sub-forum group activities, promotions, and mainly conversations. I enjoyed my time in the group and enjoyed being around the friendly sub-"community" within the group. I've been out of a group for a while now and wanted to be apart of one and embrace that experience I had with the last group I was with and I thought that Enigma would be the best fit to find that group feel to it.

Gamer Fusion - August 21, 2016, 7:12 pm

Hello, my name is Endire, although most people call me Raymond. I have been within the gaming community for essentially 5-6 years, and before that, I essentially just played games on Cartoon Network all day. I originated from a game called Minecraft, where I built a name for myself, and some reputation. From there, I started building for various different large server networks such as Arkham Network, Zirone Network, etc. Apart from building, I also learned to render builds in Cinema4D, and this was when I finally realized what I wanted to major in. Graphic Design has been a hobby for me, and always will be one, however now I can work as well as enjoy something. I feel as if Enigma is a great group for me to join because from what I heard the members are rather civilized people, and there is much for me to learn. I spend most of my day on HackForums, and will do my absolute best to be as active as possible on the subforums. Because I am a designer, I'm sure I'd be available to help offer my services at a cheaper discount for Enigma members, and just help out around the forums for anyone that has any questions I can answer. Overall, I don't know much about Enigma, but that's just the reason I'd like to join. Mysteries are a way of life, and if both parties can benefit, what can hurt? I've tried to keep this post short and simple, because that's just who I am. I enjoy being myself, and that's honestly what counts.

Thank you for taking the time in reading my application,

Endire

So yeah.. My name is Jonas (John), I am from Lithuania, Klaipeda. 18 yrs old. Well.. I am kind a new member in here, was inactive for a few months, but I came back and Im trying to be active as much, as I can. At the moment I am in two groups: Riptide and Fusion - made some giveaways, I think I am active person in these groups. ? Why Im looking for a group? Im looking for a friendly and creative community, where it's members will be up for talk, got some ideas to share, have fun-that's all I need.

My hobbies are Graphics, Marketing, entertain people and ofc listening music.

Spoken languages: lithuanian, russian, got some german experience (got it with some GFX projects-members were from Germany)
