Thread: [\[4+ Years Experience\] .C#/VB.NET Programming Service \[Vouched\]](#)

Ninja - July 15, 2016, 5:51 pm

Disclaimer: Even though the thread is closed I still offer my service.

With years of experience in both languages I can provide the service and expertise you need. I am fluent in C# and VB.net and have worked in most fields in the languages. Some of these are Optical Character Recognition for various types of captchas, web automation tools (also known as bots), Windows API, data parsing, networking, and much more. I am also familiar with reverse engineering having successfully reverse engineered Instagram, Starbucks, Snapchat, Musically, and many more services.

I will help you find a solution to your problem in a professional manner and I will keep you involved in the process to make sure I deliver in a satisfactory manner. I work for a fixed price only and I do not offer partnerships. In rare cases or long term deals I can work at an hourly rate and we will use tools to monitor the hours I work. We can use middlemen from this forums to aid in financial security for the both of us should we deem fit. I do not offer refunds, only in rare circumstances. If you forget to mention features before closing the deal and suggest them after I start and the deal is closed then I will not add them nor grant refunds in this case. Sources are not included by default.

Facebook captcha OCR. Optical Character Recognition, or OCR in short, roughly means programmatically reading text from images. In this case its a captcha from Facebook.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4855326>

SocksTcpClient. Since the .NET framework only offers HTTP(S) support using Socks is usually out of the question. I made a class that can route a tcpclient connection through a Socks 5 proxy.

And many more that I didn't publicly released or I was paid to keep private. Some examples are Starbucks private API crackers, Snapchat score boosters, Musically bots, Remote Administration Tools, Bitcoin faucet bots that actually turn profit, many captcha OCRs, Instagram private API bots, and much more.

I do like his service of coding.

I think he's done a very nice job at previous programs.

Oliver Sykes - July 17, 2016, 12:32 pm

Got too vouch for this member, really HQ, best booter on hackforums.

+Nemesis - July 17, 2016, 12:33 pm

Can vouch for him, had him code something for a while back.

???? - July 18, 2016, 4:22 pm

I've spoken to Ninja on Skype, he is a legitimate coder. One of the few on the forum who knows his stuff.

uint32 - July 18, 2016, 4:29 pm

legit you can trust him for all of your .net shitware

St?lk?r - July 18, 2016, 5:08 pm

Huge Vouch for Ninja he teached me a lot of .NET (VB) and helped me very often he's a very good coder.

Dont mind to hire him!
