Thread: [\[Official\] Pokemon Go! - Lounge #1](#)

Cameron - July 15, 2016, 9:34 pm

Official lounge of Pokemon Go!

Post about your funniest Pokemon Go moments here. Or... What ever the hell you feel like posting about.

Ooze - July 15, 2016, 9:35 pm

No I don't think this is going to fly

Especially after all those clover lounges

Night - July 15, 2016, 9:35 pm

Hello everyone my name is Pow from team Instinct. Nice to meet everyone hopefully I can find ways to level up faster on here.

Cam - July 15, 2016, 9:37 pm

Lmao that last picture you posted is hilarious Cameron. That would be the type of something i'd do. I wonder if Mewtwo is only going to be held in New York though.. I'm tempted to actually take a trip down there if it is.

accounterrorbot - July 15, 2016, 9:37 pm

Hi guys my name is Accounterror and im in Team Mystic. nice to meet ya'll

Krule - July 15, 2016, 9:37 pm

This probably won't get to far, if you want to know the truth. We all remember the lounge threads and how they operated.

I wonder how many people got flamed in those threads.

That's why I self claimed it as official m8. No one else is allowed to make any lounges now :P
Might be good to reduce some shitposting on other threads to get the 100 chars.

This isn't a group subforum lmfao

Vince - July 15, 2016, 9:39 pm

These threads remind me of the lounge threads in Instinct and shit. I can see the shit posting getting out of hand on this thread though.

Oh yeah hahaha I know exactly what you mean. Although I'd get there and the bitch would have already taken Mewtwo for herself! :(

Ohhh, I'm guessing people will need to be really high ranks before unlocking Pokemon like that then? I wonder how long it will be until someone gets a Charzard.

Vince - July 15, 2016, 9:43 pm

The Legendaries are in the code. People have already proven that. They havent actually been released in the game yet. From what I hear, they are saving those for huge game events in certain cities like NYC.

I would assume either a high level or have been playing for a long time. They as you level up, you should be exposed to newer pokemon you've never encountered before.

I don't bother with the ones that have +3 guys in it since it takes way too long to take it down even with a team. I try to snipe out the ones with just one or two guys in it then collect the defender bonus but someone always snipes me out.

I'm level 20 and haven't even entered a gym yet. I'm not sure what to do first though... I have a lot of evolved pokemon, but they range from CP 600-1250.

I have 78,000 stardust since I haven't used any yet, though. Is it a good idea to use it? I don't even know what the CP cap is for the pokemon at my level... It just seems like I find random wild pokemon with higher CP every hour, so I'm too scared to use the stardust and waste it lol.

Considering going out in an hour solo to hit down a few gyms. Getting better at dodging so I can beat some of the higher level ones. I am more interested in the defender stardust bonus than the premium currency.

They will need to add stay-at-home aspects if the game is going to have player retention for longer than a month. I have a feeling they won't fuck it up and will eventually implement something.

Insenststcsaoc

I can never pronounce it.

But starts with an 'l' and ends with an 'e' for sure.

Well of course, its a mix of shit posting, award catching and pokemon go! Welcome to the lounge
Cameron is your host.

Scarlett Johansson - July 15, 2016, 10:24 pm

it would be cool if in every town to have an elite 4 that has the best 4 people from every team and they have even more special things that you can acquire for beating them.

Deany - July 15, 2016, 10:24 pm

That would be nice I think. Or have the best pokemon trainer from each state and you get up there and battle them for some cash monies.

MATT?HEW - July 15, 2016, 10:27 pm

there will probably guaranteed be pokemon battles for real money

i bet lans are already doing battle at local cafes and shit, if any were near me i'd go.

Scarlett Johansson - July 15, 2016, 10:27 pm

Idea #2 When you set off a pokemon into the wild, the name you gave it should still be on it and it will roam around freely when you let it go. Also it would be cool to show the first owner/name of the pokemon.

It's like cock fighting. People just do it under the table here @ HF And nobody complains about it. That would be pretty genius in my book.

Scarlett Johansson - July 15, 2016, 10:28 pm

Idea #3 Should make npcs that will interact with you that you could battle or they can give you advice where to get pokemon or just something to do with the game. Maybe even do quests like can you capture this pokemon and bring it back to me. I will give you such and such pokemon for it.

Cameron - July 15, 2016, 10:29 pm

Do you guys have much trouble catching Pokemon? I'm not sure if some are hard as fuck to get or if I'm just retarded lol. I'm leaning more towards retarded tho.

Krule - July 15, 2016, 10:29 pm

It's pretty hard, Cameron if you ask me. I fucking waste like 3002302 pokeballs and have to travel out for more.

Scarlett Johansson - July 15, 2016, 10:30 pm

Idea #4 When you battle a pokemon in the wild you should make it so you can weaken a pokemon just like the game so it is easier to catch. If you make it faint you can find one of the nurse players to resurrect it so you can try to capture it again.

Deany - July 15, 2016, 10:30 pm

Vince - July 15, 2016, 10:41 pm

It seems the spawns vary city to city. I know when I got closer to Cleveland I was seeing different pokes spawn from what spawned in my small suburb.

Krule - July 15, 2016, 10:42 pm

I guess you could say the spawn points and poke stops change with your location. Maybe the location you're in is just what it is.

Omni probably has it in the code to not count quoted posts towards character counts, so I wouldn't count on it. Otherwise people would just quote large posts and add a couple of their own words at the end.

It's pretty crazy that it's a 1/250 chance and the last winner was nearly 6 hours ago. Where the hell is the luck at? ?

Check the hotspots around your area with the Ingress app and just go check them out every now and then, that's what I have been doing for the past 2-3 days, extremely efficient.

Unless you are going to do it yourself then the only way would be like attach it to something that moves. Could be a fan, a dog, a girlfriend etc.

The easiest way would be to just walk to the shop or go on a bike ride or something.

Nice I just got a Hitmonchan from a 10km egg the other day, but it was like 450 or so.

Also snagged a 550 cp Scyther today from another 10km I had, which I'm super stoked about.

Just make a throwaway account. Don't use your main account with the coordinate tracker program, because it will probably get banned. Use the throwaway to track them, then go to the coordinates it gives you with your phone logged into your main account and catch the Pokemon you tracked ?

I don't understand that. Whenever you are catching a Pokemon & miss it you can just throw more Pokeballs till you catch it right? Or is there a limit? Or did you run out of balls?

Don't try fighting gyms when you are too low level, this will be bad for your team.

If the gym beats you I think their prestige ends up going up meaning that they can leave more Pokemon there.

It's probably more likely to actually catch a Riachu then find however many Pikachus you need.

It will be interesting to see if anyone actually has one.

You should leave your phone on the game whilst in your pocket, that's what most people do.

It vibrates every time a Pokemon is near and it will also help you hatch eggs.

I haven't seen many of any of the starters, I've seen ONE bulbasaur in the wild so far. Never seen a squirtle or charmander, although supposedly they are in my city. I've seen 2-3 of each in the wild so far. They're just so fucking rare. Had a ~500 Squirtle run on me in a park the other day. Was very disappointed about it.

Close background applications and processes you don't need.

Turn phone off and on ?

What version of Android ?

And what phone ?

Yes, the app has to be open and you have to be playing for it to count walking distance for your eggs. I Kinda wish it would use the fitness app or something so it would track even when you didnt have it open.

Also cars and stuff dont work unless you coast, you have to go under 12mph for it to count. Fan method works for some, other people use bikes or skateboards to get easy distance

I've done that before, it feels great getting top poster of the day. Keep posting, just keep posting no matter how hard you wanna stop.

Recently my game has been freezing like half the time I try to catch a Pokemon. And then when I reset the app it takes forever to load again.

Really? What type of stuff did you see?

I feel like living in a city would make it so damn easy.

Yeah same here, it seems like at night it gets really bad and the pokeball freezes almost half the time I go to catch something. Then other times, like in the morning, I don't have any problems with it.

You will think of things to say, as the amount of posts I've seen from you is enormous !

You'll make top poster of the day haha ?

It seems like it just depends on what time of day you are playing. I also play in the morning when I go for my walk and have no issues.
