Thread: Hatched Egg Chart | What You Can Get | Post What You've Gotten!

funtela - July 15, 2016, 11:47 pm

Here's a chart for you guys of the Pokémon you can get from hatched eggs!

What have you gotten from hatched eggs?

Codexion - July 15, 2016, 11:51 pm

Thanks for the chart, it's going to help me out, but quick question: How do you get eggs? I really want a dratini. It's one of my favorite pokemon.

Pinsir, Zubat, Zubat, Nidoran, Magnemite

It's one of my favorite pokemon. You have to go to poke stops. When you're near one, it'll make a noise &/or go bigger. Tap it and spin the circle thing and things will pop out, most of the time you should find an egg. I got like 8 in a few minutes of walking around near my block. I too want a drtini :(Be prepared to walk 20 kilometres to hatch a few though.

I made my friend stop the car in the middle of the road to catch it. She kept bitching at me while I made her wait lmao.

Wow, nice chart, I'll be sure to reference this next time I'm running.

Thanks, mate it's very well made.

Also, where did you get the information for this chart?

ra1d - July 16, 2016, 12:01 am

About to head out to start catching them all! haha :D

Hopefully, I get some really cool ones.

Oh I didn't make the chart lol. Just found it on some website. I forgot where. I closed it after uploading it to imgur. I hope it helps though :)

A lot of this information is being aggregated from the Pokemon GO subreddit I'm pretty sure. At the moment I think that's the largest connected Pokemon GO online community.

Thanks OP, this will help. I live far from pokestops so I never really even get eggs that often so I don't have to worry about hatching them. If I do i'd probably just put my phone on a ceiling fan.

Krule - July 16, 2016, 12:25 am

Thanks for the chart buddy! That is more and likely to help people out when it comes to eggs. maybe people will enlighten themselves with this.

My luck.. Hatched a Scyther and it's only CP 91 GG ?

Pillows - July 16, 2016, 10:23 am

I got a jynx. I was really disappointed about that. Kinda wished I had gotten a snorlax but oh wells.

lucky. - July 16, 2016, 10:25 am

Man I could have gotten one of the starters from the 2k egg, had no idea thought it was just lower tier pokemon. Well a Rattata is about the same as a Pikachu right?

Yea but Pikachus are harder to find which is why I hope that one of these eggs have them. I really want a Pikachu so badly lol.

Maradonnie - July 18, 2016, 4:52 pm

I got an Eevee out of a 10km egg. Also got 32 candiez with it so I was able to evolve it after. Would've wanted another pokemon tbh but still happy with it lol.

Cap - July 18, 2016, 6:14 pm

It's pretty unfortunate that Eevee is a 10km egg because they are so extremely common to find. Out of my two 10km eggs, I received an Onix and a Jynx. One of my friends got an Eevee from it. If anything, I think Eevee should be a 5km.

CheGuevara? - July 18, 2016, 6:38 pm

I've gotten a Magmar, and that blue snail. (10km eggs).

One was 84~ CP and one was like 250~ CP. I were under level 10 using these eggs, I regret it.

Only use your 10km Egg's when you are high level to gain better CP is what I was told, (afterwards).

Oh well.. Good Pokemons, but bad CP.
