Thread: 3 Hours \(LAST WINNER 3 HOURS AGO LUCK HERE\)

Zack Fair - July 16, 2016, 6:56 pm

It's been 3 hours since the last winner. My sources are telling me someone that posts in this thread will end up getting the next award. ?

Edit: Gotta keep this Pokemon Go related so Reckful is streaming the game in case anyone is interested: <https://www.twitch.tv/reckful>

The legend himself has spoken:

It has been seven hours? Has activity dropped or the award ratio changed? Check Omniscien't thread.

"Someone who posts in this thread" is defined as 1 in 100 users searching for the award posting in all threads.

Anyways, let's see who gets the next award.

We are discussing the Pokeball award, I'd say that's pretty close to Pokemon Go Knucklez. Either way someone will get the award in this thread, lol.

Backopy - July 16, 2016, 7:02 pm

Yep, this was the trend before too when I made my thread. Looks like it's going to get hot now - appears the award gets granted in waves.

Gary - July 16, 2016, 7:03 pm

Has it really been 7 hours since I got my award o.o didn't even realize. Time goes by fast.

Omni already said there was no cap but it appears the way the award plugin is coded that it's somehow capping awards per day because it definitely doesn't look natural atm

Basically it's a 1 in 250 chance of winning, pretty low considering how hard all the other post awards are to obtain.

You post in the Pokemon Go section, the post has to be 100 characters or more and it's taken into a draw by the award plugin - if you're lucky, you win the award.

Everytime someone posts a random number is generated that is hidden. There is also another hidden number which if your hidden number hits this one then you get the reward. It is basically all about your luck

We don't know to be honest.

The award was last granted by "the system" several hours ago. Last night I also made a similar thread and straight after the system kicked into an award granting freenzie; the formula omni uses looks to be somewhat predictable, we just really need to wait until tomorrow night before we know for sure exactly how the formula works.

Possibly, a limitation set to it, or we're underestimating the odds to win the award.

Doesn't appear to be the case - it looks as if the award plugin does the award granting in live-time

BUT it also looks like it's on a timer of sorts perhaps where it pauses award granting for a period of time before resuming.

Pretty interesting.

The award is never going to go away, that's the biggest reason I wonder why you people have to spam the fuck out of this section just because you want to have it before everyone else and totally fuck over the quality of the section.

Exactly this, there is barely titles that are spelt fully for some threads because they rushed them so much...

Its getting hard core on my nerves...

Fantod - July 16, 2016, 10:45 pm

Yours sources? Haha, how much do i have to pay to get the Omni News Letter package?

Examine - July 16, 2016, 10:46 pm

Well lets be honest. If you see the pokemon award on my profile its because of this exact post right here. If you see this post and I don't have it then it means I'm never going to get it

Backopy - July 16, 2016, 10:46 pm

The award could go away at any given time, there's no guarantees tbh that's why people are going crazy over getting it here

M1L3NK0 - July 16, 2016, 10:46 pm

I'm not really expecting to get an award, I'm just glad Pokemon GO got it's own section.

GrandpaSherman - July 16, 2016, 10:47 pm

Well lets be realistic. In the event that you see the pokemon recompense on my profile this is a direct result of this careful post right here. On the off chance that you see this post and I don't have it then it means I'm never going to get it

It won't go away for MONTHS at the very LEAST. The activity and section are fine the issue is all these people just shitposting and copy-pasting eachother just to get 100 characters and have a shot at the award.

Oh, this would explain some of the activity in this section. People are going nuts over this award just as much as the clover awards.

Backopy - July 16, 2016, 11:02 pm

Yeah except with this award the chance is apparently way higher than the clovers so it's a bit more common, people are definitely going wild over it.

Matthew 6:33 - July 16, 2016, 11:03 pm

Are people just making threads to get the award. Lol.

Backopy - July 16, 2016, 11:04 pm

you don't need to make threads tho it just has to be any post in the sub forum to qualify for the award and has to be over 100 chars

I've literally been here ALL day man. Jesus, I wish I was joking but I've actually been here all day in pursuit of this award. Dropped everything on my schedule just to be here, now that's dedication lmao

i believe they do but your posts have to be over 100 characters look on omnis thread he even said it himself posts under 100 chars are disqualified

Turns out that my post on this thread didn't net me the award, so now I just have to be the very best that no one ever was and catch mewtwo to be better than everyone ;)

man yeah it looks like the award is getting way harder to get now, odds were initially 1 to 250 but it looks way more difficult to get now

No way it is still 1/250. To me it looks like it is just as rare as the fucking purple clover! R.I.P.

It's whatever now. People are starting to not even try anymore. It's gotten harder it seems and people are tired of posting 300+ and still getting nothing while those with 4 posts in the subforum get it quickly.

well man i've dedicated an entire day to this and it's nearly night here and i still dont have it so

1:125 is still pretty rare tho it appears coz like already 12 people could the award today but so many dedicated people pumping out hundreds of posts and no award so strange asf either we're cursed or the others are really lucky

Someone else just won it I believe. I'm about to go to sleep and say fuck it. I'll try for the clover awards instead. :(

Can we stop using the arrow? Wouldn't even doubt if Omni removes the awards from people who win with that, considering it's "cheating." He removed clover awards from shit posters so I'm assuming he'll do that same here.

The Pokemon go award looks very nice, I doubt I will ever get it. On topic though, the stream is down for me.

Well, the thing that you are missing is that your posts have to have at least 100 characters in them, which you are lacking. ?

What i will say is with your post ..There might have been a possibility it was your turn to win the award because YES its automatic BUT Omni will check your thread and if its BS he will take the award back

You guys are keeping this thread blessed. Last edit for the night, 2 hours ago was the latest winner. Goodluck to those who try to obtain it while I'm asleep.

Not gonna lie, I think the odds are a lot worse than 1/250 chance. Tbh there really hasn't been that many handed out considering the amount of posts made in the section already.

Use Cryptic's clover script man. It excludes spaces and special characters as you're typing. I am assuming with this post it works like the clover.

I wonder what the mechanism behind obtaining the award is. It's quite an interesting concept in my opinion.

Tommy Chong - July 17, 2016, 8:00 am

Owyeah, just caught a Slowbro at CP 830. Also had a poliwrath at 1030ish earlier. Currently lv 17.

Wonder if my chances on the awards are the same, but i highly doubt it :')

Saint - July 17, 2016, 8:02 am

People are still going at it? God damn this award is really wanted. I'm guessing the clovers were even more hectic. To be honest I would be posting if I didn't have the award either.

Good luck everyone!

To some, I'm a Pokémon master, but to others, I'm just a fatboy at heart who wants to eat cheesecake all day and build pillow forts. And no, this wasn't an attempt to get the award. I know. But that seems like so much work haha. I'd rather just post and hope it's 100 characters. This is my favorite sub-forum right now anyways so I don't really mind lol.

It's not working for me on Safari anymore for some reason :/ I upgraded to Sierra but after that the script no longer works. It says it's active though it just doesn't show up.

Germany69420 - July 17, 2016, 9:18 am

I don't care about the award. Thanks.

Vince - July 17, 2016, 9:18 am

The key to getting the award is to just stop trying and post casually like you would in any other thread. Spamming the shit out of the section seems to only make it worse. Just post on threads you like or that you find useful.

Try using Chrome or Firefox I think they will allow this to work. I didn't know you could download it for Safari but I might be wrong.

Yea it was working fine for me on Safari until I updated to the Sierra beta. Fuck my life. I hate using Chrome or Firefox lol I have everything saved on Safari like all my passwords, etc.

Do threads give the change to get the pokeball also? Lots of threads in this sub, probably the hottest forum on the entire site. Crazy. Never seen a trend this big.

I was thinking the same thing. I know for clovers it's only posts to the threads but I wonder if starting an actually thread counts as a chance to win the award. I'll see if anyone asked in Omni's thread.

I think Wakka won his award by one of his threads. So I believe you can win it either way, it doesn't really matter.

Standing on the defensive indicates insufficient strength; attacking, a superabundance of strength. It isn't time based, but the amount of spam posts we are getting in this section is really messing with peoples chances. I've sort of given up now.
