I will not be giving out vouch copies to anyone.

This is a mentoring service that I'm selling. You get PM and Skype support 24/7 on how to lose weight. As long as you follow my mentoring you will lose one pound of fat every week and keep it off.

I do not think you understand what 24/7 means.... How are you going to realistically offer 24/7 support? Is there a support team in different timezones? Do you not sleep?

Regardless, glws.

Is that the only thing you're offering OP? Or are you actually gonna help them plan their meals to achieve their goals?
