Overcome - July 22, 2016, 5:49 pm

Name : Overcome

Profile Link : <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=954841>

Age : 22

What all games do you own? : Halo 5, Halo MCC, Destiny, GTA V

Do you have any competitive experience? I began to take gaming seriously when I got an Xbox 360 in 2007. I began playing Halo 3 all the time, and eventually obtained a 5-star general with 6 50s. I progressed to Gamebattles and used this site avidly by the time Halo Reach was released. I became the #1 overall ranked GB player for Halo Reach for the first 7 or so months before slowing down. I continued to play Gamebattles and was a staff member at the time, and amassed the overall records displayed in my signature, in addition to other top teams that are no longer displayed on the site. I continued to play Gamebattles on Halo 4, where my doubles partner and I placed 2nd in the doubles playoffs, beating out multiple professional players. However, due to time constraints related to my university workload at the time, I stopped playing as much and focused more on school rather than trying to model my future based on competitive gaming. In addition to Halo, I also grinded the crap out of MW3 after its release and maintained a top 50-60 position in FFA until Christmas break was over.

At this point in time, I mostly play Halo 5. Though I have put competitive gaming on the back burner (I primarily play big team and warzone, though I am able to, and have, obtained champ in most playlists when I am in the mood to grind.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : Whenever I am not working and home I will be able to play. If members of the gaming sector and I agree upon a time, I will put forward my full effort to be there to participate. I find it hard to give an hourly estimation, but I can promise you that I will be able to consistently participate with my fellow group members.

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector : I expect Synergy's sub-forum to consist of content that embodies a gaming culture. I was previously a member of Respawn, and I really enjoyed my time interacting within that group. I would like to be given the opportunity to have access to a sub-group of people who share the similar interest towards gaming that I do. I want to be part of the discussions, group activities, guides, and public forum activities that goes with being part of a user-group.

Why should you be accepted? : I believe that my history of gaming, in addition to my in-depth understanding of the Halo series, would serve as a great asset to this user group. I have accomplished quite a bit competitive wise compared to the average competitive gamer, and I believe that I hold gaming-related accomplishments that help differentiate me as a member deserving of a gaming use-group spot. Beyond simply focusing on what makes me stand out, I am completely interested in learning from others within this group who have experience in areas of gaming that I do not. Entering this group will allow me to not only help others but to also allow me to grow as a gamer.

Thanks,

Overcome

What all games do you own? : I can basically play any game I prefer as I'm always stocked up on Xbox currency, however, I mainly play Overwatch, GTA V, Madden, CODBO3, and some other games I play from time to time

Do you have any competitive experience? : I used to be a huge competitive player in BO2 about a year ago, but shortly after I decided to stop gaming and fix up my lifestyle. Now that I'm set on where my life is, I am now back to gaming, and am still able to do my daily rituals and not have the fear of being who I was back then

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : I'll say about 10-15 hours a week. Could do more depending on my schedule, but I am mainly playing Overwatch and Madden. If I'm able to find some members who can play Overwatch with me, I am more than down to play!

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector : I expect members who are looking for players to play with them, members who are chatting about new and upcoming games, and a friendly environment among many gamers who are ready to kick ass in XB1

Why should you be accepted? : I feel like lately I've been doing nothing than playing xb1, and I need a group of people to help me carry teams to pick up a W. With that being said, I'm sure Synergy has more than enough members to help out with this and I would love to be part of it

Name : ?Opulence (HF), Diehardmerica (xb1)

Profile Link : <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1543108>

Age : 20~25 (Don't want to give out specifics.)

What all games do you own? : Too many.. COD (advanced warfare and BO3), The Division, 7 days to die (current favorite), H5, MCC, GTAV, Minecraft, Destiny, battlefield hardline, dead rising 3, dying light, rainbow 6 siege, Titanfall, witcher 3, Fallout 4, and about 60 other games (cheap / free games, not worth mentioning them all)

Do you have any competitive experience? : MW2 and BO.. Nothing too serious since then, last game I really got into was H5. I play here and there but don't have a squad anymore. Also, I was extremely competitive in the division for a while. Kinda fell out after the recent update but could get back into it if there was a squad.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : That's tough. I work a 9-5 so if I'm not busy during the week I can probably get about 15 hrs. May not be consistent though it depends.. I can guarantee 5 hours a week minimum though.

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector : In the past I have made threads and tried to get players and squads together for various games. I've made a few good friends through the process. I'm just looking for a community who is active on Xb1 so I can always have people to play with, let's be honest, less skids = more wins!

Why should you be accepted? : I'm always looking for people to play Xbox with. I will rarely decline invites as long as I'm not already with a squad. I find that I can also get along well with most people and am able to form good in game bonds that allow for better team coordination. I would really like to get back into competitive play, H5 specifically. I also enjoy more laid back games like 7days to die and minecraft as well. My play style is versatile and I'm just hoping to find some new people to play with!!

Thank you for taking the time to review this application.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I do, I played a lot of GB's on call of duty as well as competed in numerous lan tournaments in my state, am quite successful as well but I don't like how cod is progressing with all of the jumping as such as it's just ruining the game in my opinion.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly : Weekly I can donate at least 3 hours a day on most days, more on the weekend.

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector : Out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector I expect for a mature, professional group of gamers that are willing to help each other to better each other into becoming professional players.

Why should you be accepted? : One of the reasons I should be accepted is in all of the games I play I seem to have quite high capability in skill, and with that, new games that come out I think I could possibly lead the sector in the game. What all games do you own? : Forza Horizon, Forza Horizon 2, Forza 6, Forza Horizon 3 (on the 23rd), GTA V, Call of Duty Black Ops 3 & Advanced Warfare, I have hardly ever played Call of Duty, though.

Do you have any competitive experience?: I am always asked how do I get the fastest lap times on Forza games when racing online.

How much time can you dedicate to playing with your sector members weekly: About 24 to 36 hours on Friday and Saturday, excluding any small amount of time I play after I get home on weekdays (usually three to five hours total Monday through Friday).

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming Sector: To find other people that are better than me so they can best my lap times and teach me whatever they know that I don't.

Why should you be accepted?: I shouldn't be according to the guidelines. "You must not have a bad reputation within the HackForums community." The only negs I've gotten are from dumbasses that I've roasted. According to those select few idiots, with regard to their own self-proclaimed "elite" status, I am not valuable enough to be within any group even though I've provided countless various services for free and roasted the fuck out of retards here that revert to being a baby and negging someone when the finally realize they can't win against them.
