Never sold a generator but cute try

Evil Bob - July 19, 2016, 9:25 pm

Vouch for Arrow. HQ product as always, knows what he's doing.

Doubt it will ever work for google.

Anyway just curious, the people vouching, have they even tried the product?

The Professor - July 19, 2016, 9:29 pm

Arrow, let me tell you about this guy.

If there was a sauce that knew how to do shit other people didn't, it'd be called Arrow sauce.

Y?ung Thug - July 19, 2016, 9:30 pm

I did, and it works as expected. Got few accs and runs very smoothly. We can dream about google brute, but who would fuck with google?

Squidward - July 19, 2016, 10:03 pm

You should mention in the OP that this only works for Pokemon Trainer Club accounts.

Doxicity - July 19, 2016, 10:44 pm

One of the first Pokemon Go account crackers on the market, and it works perfectly.

Ginsum - July 19, 2016, 10:54 pm

Arrow is changing the brute forcing market by introducing a whole new sector of it, can't say I am astonished since he has shown me his true potential with his other superb products.

Sorry for the dumb question, how do I get a license?

Thanks ! :)

Vodka. - July 20, 2016, 9:34 am

If you knew the username of someone's account then you could easily obtain it ?

No, it's the exact same as a every other cracker basically, you won't have a better chance at getting an account if you were to use a different cracker, it all depends on your combo list.

Wyatt Garcia - July 20, 2016, 3:19 pm

If you have time to waste with sentry configs sure do. BTW, nice shitty seller platform you are selling here, you even blocked my vm's ip after i totally raped it with xss. Please refrain from calling people retard when you cant simply sanitize user inputs.

It's indeed linked with pokemon go accs. You can even see the progress on the website, most people take it over gmail auth.
