Pokemon GO Boosting/Item Collection/Pokemon Collection

Hello! I have a few friends that live in an absolutely EXTREMELY populated, constantly lured, and amazing point for farming Pokemon items and rare Pokemon.

I figured I'd toss up a thread here and see if there is any market for this sort of thing as I've seen a few websites already up and running for it.

They have caught several rare/high level Pokemon at their spot including a ~200CP Pikachu last night!

I misquoted my pricing for 1-20, it would be more than $55 I just can't edit my post, anyways, looking for more jobs!

I would say this is heavily overpriced. Im not trying to sales trash but someone could literally go to the pokemon section, download the bot, set the point to central park, and have it bot overnight to level 20 catching rare pokemon all night...

I mean this is hand leveled so zero risk of being banned, all legitimate, hand leveled services I see across 5 different forums charge far more than I'm charging. If someone wants something bottled then they can do that themselves and get themselves banned, fine by me lol.
