Thread: Scammed \$100 BTC by Sparky56p

I was scammed by this user (Sparky56p) $100 BTC an hour ago. He was going under the fake Target™ name. He did send me a PM asking me to sell him btc which I thought it was the same Target™, I didn't check his profile since I've already done a couple transactions with the real Target™.

Long short story, after I send him the $100 via btc, he immediately changed his name to Sparky56p and added me to his ignore list. This means I can not reply to his PM and view his profile. However I can view his reps, what others have said.

Here is the proof of me sending him the $100 via BTC:

Not sure what else I'm supposed to provide since this is all the proof I got. Hopefully, this is enough.

God, this pisses me off to see. I believe he is compromised, but rip to all his rep.
