Great thread.

I think it would look better if you included a name for each spreading method - "Spreading Method #1 - Minecraft and Skype" etc.

Purple Kief - July 21, 2016, 2:16 pm

It's this. Always.

Good job dude, I know you put a lot of time into this so let me pull your penis a little. ?

(Jul 21, 2016 12:24 AM)YayHar Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Bypass
Spoiler \(Click to View\)

You can bypass these things easily by making a download and execute program (DAE). Once the DAE is executed it will download your stub from one of the hosting services (refer to the hosting tab) and execute it on their machine.

This makes it so you can send the DAE through skype and email, since it's not your stub. No need to worry, you won't need to crypt the DAE as it's FUD. It's not a RAT.

Click Here for French Crypter's DAE

This is wrong and should be corrected. Downloaders are often detected as Droppers.
