Yep, we are absolutely inundated with requests at the moment! We are already working on server optimisations/upgrades.

If you wait 10 minutes and try again, the Cron should have updated! ?

Accuracy and live data.

Pokevision also doesn't show Lured pokestops, Gyms etc.

Interesting, will try out when there is more spots!

FractumSeraph - July 21, 2016, 4:04 am

What's the benefit of this over: <https://github.com/AHAAAAAAAAA/PokemonGo-Map>

It appears to be almost exactly the same, but with a front-end for adding locations. And with the large amount of locations its seems like it would be slower.

Edit: Turns out that's exactly what this is .-.

Pointing it out because PokemknGo-Map is using the MIT License.

I'm confused as to what you are trying to prove... An MIT license basically says "Use/change/sell as you wish"

The difference is the countless changes back-end and that addition of a front-end.
You are sort of comparing an Apple to a Pear Tree.

FractumSeraph - July 21, 2016, 4:51 am

You're allowed to sell it, modify it, and pretty much do whatever with it, but the MIT license and credit has to be somewhere.

Haha well to be fair some of them might be putting their next door neighbours etc. And there's no way of finding out WHO requested that location. So basically the information you are gathering is.... A completely random address.

I dont suppose you guys would consider adding a filter showing the locations of a selected pokemon? It is something im sure alot of people are missing from pokevision, and seems quite doable as you keep a database of saved locations instead of just scanning them once.

Also, you should probably make sure people dont scan the same area twice.

If you ever run out of things to do, you could also add small things as the current location of the highest amount of lured pokestops in one area. And gyms. And the most amount of pokemon in one area.

Can anyone get this website to work? It's been down for me for the last few days.

Every time I try to look at a map, I either get the "The server refused the connection" error, or I get the "AttributeError: lat and lng required" error.

So far, Poke Position is the ONLY Pokemon Go app that I know of that allows me to see the current status of gyms, and their prestige level. This is SUPER important for me to locate decent out of the way gyms.

Is there a trick to getting this to work that I don't know about? I'm currently using Windows 10 and Chrome to access the website. That worked for me in the past until recently. But I see that people are still submitting locations (many people submit the same location several times in a row) so it must be working for SOME people. How?

Come test it out with us ?

great, then i can get the footage for my video ands start editing

We are currently upgrading our servers, and therefore connection problems may occur. We are doing our best to get back on track within 1 hour. Thank you for your patience

bliznik - July 27, 2016, 11:18 pm

So hard to add my location! :(I REALLY want to just track gyms around my area, and yours is the ONLY app that I know of that will do it!

Leimone - July 28, 2016, 12:10 am

Need to be able to filter out Pokémons and auto scan wider area, then this shit will be amazing.

We are working on a filter, And scan ranges will be increased as soon we fixed the last server problems.

Siid - July 28, 2016, 1:06 am

On smartphone this is very laggy :/

We are working on this problem, Wil be fixed soon.

Leimone - July 28, 2016, 6:54 am

Make sure to update us here when uve done the changes :)

balazs312 - July 28, 2016, 7:21 am

ofc its broken... like everything related to pokemon go

Raz Riverblade - July 28, 2016, 9:21 am

it returns every location as non-existing

That should now be fixed ?

We are back online ?

bliznik - July 28, 2016, 2:50 pm

I keep trying to add places like Newport Beach, CA or Newport Coast, CA, and it returns an error
"Oh snap! Newport Beach, CA is not a valid location!"

Gingerdream - July 28, 2016, 3:26 pm

Not working for me either, just a white screen with no map showing, no matter the location I input.

Raz Riverblade - July 29, 2016, 6:21 am no pokémon showing 'probably due to usntable servers) The universe doesn't want me to make this video

Try a simple CTRL + F5 bud, might be cached!

You guys are awesome! Look how amazing this looks ?

We are getting close to being able to full release with loads more locations, we just want to be able to provide a consistent service in the meantime!

Also bare in mind guys that all locations refresh after 10 minutes, so if your map isn't being added, wait a few minutes and try again ?

bliznik - July 31, 2016, 9:40 am

I can't add any locations. Anyone else having this issue?

Up In The Smoke - July 31, 2016, 3:30 pm

The site is taking so long to load.

Remix™ - July 31, 2016, 8:01 pm

Looks like the site is down for right now

Can't apologize enough for the intermittent service guys, we are really trying to work out the best way to run the site with the features you love most!

Pepinus - August 1, 2016, 6:22 am

Wow this map is so good! It's so useful that you can also scan your own region to see gyms and pokéstops :)

One question, will you have to scan your location again for pokémons or will it always be up to date?

Nevermind I didn't read this: 'locations will be scanned for 10 minutes - After 10 minutes your location will be automatically removed'

It would be cool if it was permanent like in Pokévision but it's still a very useful site!

Bionical - August 1, 2016, 7:06 am

THis website freezes every few seconds.

Why loading all the Pokemon from the beginning? It causes too much overload.

Only load the pokemon where I click with my mouse....like in PokeVision.

Danieldude - August 1, 2016, 7:13 am

Please do it like pokevision i could pay for it!! :)

alseng - August 2, 2016, 7:48 am

Is there a way to filter since i cant seem to find it?

Mouse? - August 2, 2016, 7:53 am

Don't get too big, or Niantic will find you like they did Pokevision

bliznik - August 4, 2016, 3:42 am

I understand that finding Pokemon doesn't work, but does finding gyms at least work? I mainly use your website to find other Mystic gyms that I can help to support and strengthen.

McDolands - August 23, 2016, 1:15 pm

sir it does not work pls fix i want to find pokeman

? TAQ ? - September 9, 2016, 7:45 am

Does this currently work? Doesn't seem to show any Pokemon.
