Thread in question: He junked it as I guessed after I sent him warning. He had locked the thread long ago when I first messaged him about problems. Doesn't matter. I have screenshots of whole thread. I figured he would junk it anytime then. Dumb dropped price to 200 Euros to get some sales later.

here (Click to View) <http://postimg.org/gallery/15cbkvsxq/>

See pages 1-5

I have also talked with his 2nd buyer Cash900, he hasn't earned a dime from it along with another one KoolHunk.

Initially we supported him because we thought the method would work but it went shit afterwards.

sold me a "private" method with refund guarantee. Original method he sent has loopholes. The website which its "supposed" to work does not work. Asks me and there is another buyer to "do our own research" to find similar websites which we are not supposed to do first thing. But we still struggle for days to find it and fail. Asked him about it, his response "Are you guys just lazy?"

No support/no reply ever since.

Sent quite a few warning PMs to him before opening this.

More proof can be added if required.

This is definitely not about the money, I have my own methods to earn but people need to be advised with this users false schemes and methods.

his 1st buyer posted proof of earnings over 1.5k$ I was interested.

Egregious Jr. - July 21, 2016, 1:02 pm

Legit report. Sorry for your loss.

zoh - July 21, 2016, 1:08 pm

I'd like to state that I bought this method too and the seller offered no valuable support. In fact, he asked us to google search for a new website if the current one doesn't work. I spent $500 (Method + setup) but to no avail. I'll open a scam report as well.

User216 - July 21, 2016, 1:43 pm

The user tried to make a quick buck, Op People are trying to cash out on hackforums.

Lay Low off trading for now, People are getting bored.

New are Rep rules have to come in to stop this insanity, I'de start a gfx thread and get hunderds of rep, And Gfx isn't exactly that hard.

Don't come raging at me if your a gfx designer this is just an example you still are a person who deserves his skin,

At least most gfx designers don't scam.

//Edit : Op the user has 100 Rep, And you have 10 times that amount, You should've have made him go first. wtf.

@user216 It doesn't matter. Don't know why you posted unrelated things. I know that for a fact because I do make money myself online.

i wasn't against you, im just supriised you went first. User is a scammer and thats all that matters.

StuffSneak - July 21, 2016, 2:12 pm

1st thing let me tell you, rep doesn't matter here. Hell I know many nonupgraded members who are of lot more help than some wannabes blue guys.

I already mentioned. I went through with it because his 1st buyer posted payment proof of 1.5K. Which I think was manufactured as well because that site just does not work with the method. I am surprised how the hell he did not even test it before selling to us.

I don't give support to People that try to sell the eBook behind my back for less.

Also there is no refund if you are not able to find a single website like EBAY where you can buy and sell stuff.

When the heck did I try to sell your book behind your back? Hell it doesn't work even if I wanted to sell it.

Give proof or dont bullshit. I even talked with your "potential buyer" do you want me to post our skype or PM convo here what we talked? Also your bribe to us to get your method sold?

Quote:Also there is no refund if you are not able to find a single website like EBAY where you can buy and sell stuff.

It does not work on ebay you moron. We have been trying to tell you that since beginning. Ebay and ALL sites have automatic payment system on product page. Your method needs manual payment system. I hope you remember that atleast after all, its your method. And you did not mention this while giving me refund guarantee so anyhow that is invalid. AND we are not supposed to find it ourself afterall. You were not even aware of the site you gave doesn't work. After we told you that, you told us to find other site. so stop BSing your way out of this saying "we were supposed to find a site from start" because we were not and it does not even say that on your method which is a TXT file.

Stop giving bullshit excuses. If you want to bullshit then support it with some proof. I couldnt even sell it if I want to because it doesn't work.

Why did you lock your thread when we started complaining and even junked it after my dispute warning? How about your 1st buyer give me proof that he indeed used that website like you said it worked for him?

Now you're making baseless allegations on StuffSneak when you know he didn't do anything. Lol nice try but you can post that on my thread when I open a deal dispute today.

One of your potential customers approached me 2 weeks after I bought your method and he asked me if your method works. I told him the truth that your support is shit and I wanted to mitigate my risk by talking about selling the method to him. So my fault is that I gave him an option which I apologise for but I didn't actually sell it neither did we talk about it from that point.

Instead of pointing fingers and finding lame excuses you should realise that $500 is a big amount for a 'working' method. You're just plain stupid asking us to google stuff ourselves. If you really believe your method is worth $1.5k (as you have claimed numerous times) then you should show me exactly how you do it. I don't need to google anything because I can do that without paying $500.

tl/dr your support was & still is pathetic. You're lucky you made quick money from us but I'm 100% sure your shit support won't bring you any more customers. Plus, you threaten people like a 10 year old kid.

Mate.

When you guys were talking about it, we had already purchased and as I said in OP, method "looks" promising and that is why we were defending at that point of time.

But afterwards, it unfolded the truth.

Edit: By the way, that thread you have pointed out is total bullshit. No one is multi lol and I hope with us opening report makes it clear enough for you that we are not his multis?

I'm assuming OP was retarded and tried to sell the method behind my back. So I've cut Support. I could do it like you Vyrez and Dox him. Isn't that what you're doing when someone tries to scam you? Since you're selling public methods on here which are leaked everywhere you're kinda pissed that I'm selling a working method which is not public everywhere.

Your method doesn't fking work. I am not stupid enough like you to do this shit.

Scammer is a scammer.

What non-existent support are you talking about? As told in OP, sent you quite a lot messages about this and never once you replied and you talking about support.

I already know this aint getting resolved or shit.

It just sucks he is still there selling his "method" lol.

After he did this to me and few others, he was rarely coming to HF and was not selling anything for quite a LONG time so I almost forgot but I see now he is still here trying to scam others.

I didn't scam anyone, the only bitch around here is you and koolhunk. And again, receiving discounted copies and expecting the whole setup like a baby and then trying to resell the method behind my back.

It's not my problem that you don't have any site like eBay or Craigslist in your mind. You are a lazy crying bitch, nothing more.

Look what I found:

www0.xup.to/exec/ximg.php?fid=22618017

"The Method is doable, only the website is not working for us" yes since your too lazy to use google translator for eBay Kleinanzeigen or use Craigslist. And I don't google those sites for you two lazy fucks if you paid 400 I instead of 1k. What do you expect? Teamview you both through everything till you made money and you just sit there and wait for the money come in? That's not how mentoring works. You have to work on your own, I'm just watching above your shoulder if you're doing bs or if there's a risk that you're getting busted.
