Thread: HF User Wants to Buy House Unit From Me

Prophet Banana - July 22, 2016, 9:17 am

I own a housing complex in Miami. A user messaged me today whose traveling from Hawaii and looking to stay in one of my units for 3 months. Despite the business side of things, this person and I are only aquantent right now but when he arrives it'll be awesome befriending someone from HF in real life.

The Who Soup saga continues.

If this is true then make sure to keep an eye on him or her. I wouldn't trust many people from Hack Forums except a select few.

Sounds cool af.

I'd love to meet up with individuals from HF and do some business together, hope you have a good time and take advantage of the opportunity?

Lmfao. Inb4 he stops paying rent for months.

Pretty sure this is a reference to the other thread I saw earlier about someone having to evict an HF member.
