Thread: Ergo Proxy

Has anyone here watched Ergo Proxy? I can't find anyone who has watched it.

Really great Story, I just got finished with the Dub, zoned out watching it all night.

Pino is my Favorite character :D

Anyone else have a Favorite Character?

Oh yes, I enjoyed "Amy Lee, the animation"

Haha, I guess RE-L does look a lot like her.

I have seen it several times along with Manglobes Deadman Wonderland. Right now, Ergo Proxy reigns supreme as my favorite anime of all time. I honestly like every aspect of the show, even it's flaws.

It's on my plan-to-watch list. Would you recommend it to a mature viewer?

Yeah, it's kinda hard to follow your first time. It's got a moment or two of some cringe worthy stuff. It's just a totally different type of story and it's a really good experience all the way through.

If you decide to watch it and have any questions, pls, just ask.

Yes, it was great. I loved every second tbh.
