Thread: To sleep or not to sleep

BR?ND?N - July 26, 2016, 4:17 am

That is the question ?

It's currently 4:15 am here. I have to be up around 8 am to go to school and register. They make us do this thing where we get IDs, our schedules, etc. So I have to be up at 8 to do that. Sucks.

So do I go to sleep and get 4 hours of sleep or wait until 8?

I have trouble staying up until 6 even, so I don't think I can stay awake. I mean, if I go to bed at 6, and then get woken up at 8, i'll be all fucked up. Either now or never but i'm not even tired :/ I know I will be in a few hours though.

Being a cunt is my job. So please help yourself out.

That certainly helps. I think i'll take your advice and do both. Time to induce sleep paralysis.

Sleeping is for the week, you can stay up for 5 days without sleep.

W?If - July 26, 2016, 5:53 am

Sleep trust me 4 hours is a good amount of sleep. I had this issue the last week and it was the worst to not sleep at least a little :P

Prophett - July 26, 2016, 5:53 am

Sleep is love. Sleep is life. Definitely sleep, brother.

My English is not very good at times, and touche is a French word at that. So forgive me if my definitions or use of a word is wrong at times.

Maybe instead of constantly being a pathetic cunt on my threads, you could kindly correct me and move on. Or you know, if you have such an issue with my threads, don't reply to them.

Simple fucking logic.

Some sleep is better than no sleep. Take a power nap and have a big breakfast so that you stay awake.

It's 6am now. God dammit me. I'll probably lurk the lounge for a bit to keep my ass up for another 2 hours.

I'd go to sleep, it'll be harder to snap out of it but once you're awake you're in better shape with 4 hours of sleep
