Just throwing up a quick poll to see what you guys would like for the theme of the next round of the elimination game to be? If you guys choose the last option then I will change the poll in a few days to give options for a new category.

Hm.... would you consider anti-heroes as part of this context for your definition of a "male villain" since that would allow characters such as Lelouch (Code Geass), Light (Death Note), Alucard (Hellsing), etc to name a few to be included in such a list.

However, if you mean a purely defined villain, and to be fair to the others I won't choose too mainstream one as surely someone else will do thusly, then I would have to suggest the following among a few:

- Griffith (Berserk)
- Shogu Makishima (Psycho Pass)
- Toguro Brothers (Yu Yu Hakusho)
- either Shou Tucker or Father (FMA/FMA:Brotherhood)
- Johan Liebert (Monster)

Just a few names off the top of my head, I'm sure there will be most to come from other posts.

Doflamingo (One Piece) would be perfect for the list.
