Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Surah 38:41-44:

And remember Our servant Ayyub, when he called upon his Lord: The Shaitan has afflicted me with toil and torment. Urge with your foot; here is a cool washing-place and a drink. And We gave him his family and the like of them with them, as a mercy from Us, and as a reminder to those possessed of understanding. And take in your hand a green branch and beat her with It and do not break your oath; surely We found him patient; most excellent the servant! Surely he was frequent in returning (to Allah).

"We went out with Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) on the expedition to the Bi'l-Mustaliq and took captive some excellent Arab women; and we desired them, for we were suffering from the absence of our wives, (but at the same time) we also desired ransom for them. So we decided to have sexual intercourse with them but by observing 'azl (Withdrawing the male sexual organ before emission of semen to avoid-conception). But we said: We are doing an act whereas Allah's Messenger is amongst us; why not ask him? So we asked Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him), and he said: It does not matter" (Sahih Muslim 3371)

"Then the apostle sent Sa-d b. Zayd al-Ansari, brother of Abdu'l-Ashal with some of the captive women of Banu Qurayza to Najd and he sold them for horses and weapons." (Ibn Ishaq/Hisham/Hisham 693)

Quran (2:223) - "Your wives are as a tilth unto you; so approach your tilth when or how ye will..."
There is no such thing as rape in marriage, as a man is permitted unrestricted sexual access to his wives.

you can't deny facts, bud

The title of this thread alone made me not want to click it, but dammit I did. Glad to see another Muslim bashing thread.

If the word "Muslim" is mentioned, the thread becomes a bashing thread. The topic is not "fucking muslims raped a woman". Nope. So maybe,just maybe, we should focus on the fact this woman was raped by a refugee, instead of the personal religious beliefs of this refugee. And oh,maybe we can stop generalizing every fucking muslim. We don't do this to every religion, and every major religion has graphic or controversial verses.

Mr.Peanut - September 21, 2016, 3:20 am

This guy is clearly mental. The same would apply for ANY person/gender/race/citizenship status/religion. As an Eritrean I must say, this is simply unheard of. Also besides the bs 50/50 stat of Christian to Muslim stats you read on Wikipedia about Eritrea, the country is predominately Christian (Catholic or Orthodox). When you flee a country, you risk capture from many many criminals. Who will then take you for ransom or harvest your organs. This is simply worst case, but there are many other factors. There is NO justifications in that man's actions but maybe he's gone mental over the journey heading to Europe. Maybe he's mental already. And by mental I mean crazy, not "oh he's mentally ill, he should be treated and not punished".

Just saying though

Have you ever been to Germany? I have and the guy you responded to lives there. It's a great city. Their "refugee" status is nothing like what you hear about compared to other European countries. Also, is there any other/better articles on this same incident? All I see is a title that says "Eritrean, Rape, Refugee" and then a poorly written article (in Dutch, or translated in English for that matter). There is little to no information on the suspect or details on the story. The guy lived in Germany since 2013, I wouldn't really call him a refugee anymore he was probably a citizen. He's been there long before the refugee talk on the internet (recently).

Not saying this event didn't happen op, but read the article for yourself and ask if it was well written.

Not saying this event didn't happen op, but read the article for yourself and ask if it was well written. I live in Germany, too. So I am basically here every day. And the refugee crisis is NOT going well. The far right gets more popularity, we had cologne Sylvester (and similar, but smaller incidents), and there are literally 54 refugees in total working in a big company which are listed in the DAX (German stock market) (Source:

<http://www.faz.net/aktuell/wirtschaft/unternehmen/welcher-konzern-stellte-fluechtlinge-ein-14322168.html>) out of millions.

Welt.de is one of the most neutral and serious newspapers in germany which is not biased in any direction. And the article is written in german, not dutch.

It's kept short because it's "just" an ordinary rape report. Most rapes are not even covered by media. I guess they just wrote it there because it was so horrible. But if you need more sources:

<http://www1.wdr.de/nachrichten/westfalen-lippe/vergewaltigung-friedhof-100.html>

<http://www.rp-online.de/politik/asylbewerber-vergewaltigt-79-jaehrige-in-ibbenbueren-auf-einem-friedhof-aid-1.6144139> and you can find even more by simply googling the title.

And this person is a refugee. Please do not call him something different just because he is in germany since 2 years. As long he still has a refugee status he is a refugee, no matter how long he already is in germany.

"54 refugees work in the DAX companies."

That's the fault of the refugees or what?

Of course there are "refugees" who commit crimes, just like German people who do them. Yes, they shouldn't be in Germany and they don't deserve to be here, but that's not even 1% of all refugees. Don't generalize. The refugee crisis doesn't affect the life of the average German citizen.

And btw, most of the "refugees" who molested (not raped, not even 10 women were raped), were from North Africa. Not Syria.

Most people without work in germany are bad educated, and there are not many jobs for low educated people in germany available, for example new buildings in germany are nearly always done by eastern europe construction companies.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Red: Bad educated people without work.

Black: Total

A lot of refugees simply won't find a job.

And in Germany that's a much bigger problem than in the USA because we have a social security system (which I hate anyways, but that does not belong here)

What does a person without a job cost an US American? A few dollars every week?

In Germany someone without a job costs the tax payer in Germany at least 404€ per month!

We already don't have enough money to ensure the pension of the current generations and have 50%+ taxes.

I simply do not want that the state spends money on people who are not from Germany before the problems here are solved. The education system requires a complete update, we have an increasing number of homeless, crime is rising extremely fast, the Euro is unstable, the entire state system is extremely slow and inefficient (not as bad as in other countries, but still).

And Hispanics coming to America are different:

- A lot of them probably have at least basic English knowledge
- In the USA there is more industry and jobs for low educated people as in Germany (Or at least the German state Bavaria where I live)
- They are coming constantly, not in one huge wave.
- The USA is already used to them. Germany is not used to refugees and that's why it does not work properly.

Please ask yourself these few questions to find out why it gets much more media attention if a refugee commits a rape:

- Which country do German citizens belong to? Germany
- Which country do refugees belong to? Not Germany
- Is the % of rapes committed by refugees in relation to their number higher than the rapes by German citizens? Yes.

Wasn't that hard.

I never said I don't understand as to why that would get much more media attention.

There are still 7K+ cases of rape (based on the police recorded cases per 100K + total number of citizens) in Germany each year, almost 20 a day. And these crimes are committed by people who well enough know the social rules and the law, which makes it even worse, not that I am trying to make the crimes refugees commit sound less bad in any way.

Why the hell would someone rape 79 old?

arturky71 - October 7, 2016, 6:51 am

This is just Unacceptable.

Hundreds of global issues such as crime, debt and loss of identity is starting to occur because of this immigration coming from the middle east.

The majority of these immigrants coming from the middle east are un-employed which brings an economic problem for many countries. This is because, when these peoples immigrate from the middle east they only tend to go to countries with "welfare" programs to support them. This is the main reason many countries are falling into economic issues.

Another issue this middle eastern immigration is causing; is violence. The amount of violence and terrorist acts that has happened since this mass immigration has started is over 50%.

God bless Europe.

Guys, let me know if you agree with this comment.

Thank you,

Arthur/Cele
