High CP is different to everyone, you also purchased 15 Level 20 accounts. If you want "High CP" I recommend our LVL 30+ as they are all 1500CP+

Thebobsz955 - August 4, 2016, 1:46 pm

Hey guys, just wanted to remind people to check their accounts thoroughly, as i recently purchased a lvl 30 account and was disappointed at first. However, after further inspection i noticed that the account had 1000+ Magikarp candies and a few hundred eevee candies and Nido candies and a whole lot more. After some evolving i had some preety decent pokemon.

Chance Acid Rapper - August 4, 2016, 2:05 pm

Bought a lvl 30, Didn't have very many great pokemon upon first inspecting but had 800k stardust and a retarded amount of candy for nearly every pokemon. Without catching anything myself I was able to evolve and power up a lot of pokemon to be top notch.

What I received with my account (after evolution and powering up):

2600 exeggutor

2500 vaporeon

2500 Arcanine
2400 Gyarados (recieved 1600 magikarp candies with the account)
2200 Vileplume
2100 machamp
2100 Victreebel
And probably 30+ pokemon in between 1000-2000CP
Huge vouch for this service!

Every account is different, I have received alot of feedback about the candies on hand though ?

I have updated my Terms of Sale. I have had many people tonight say logins do not work. I am the one who bottled the accounts and I will no longer be giving out free account swaps for invalid information. If your account is not as advertised that is a different story.

- 1) I do not guarantee any certain pokemon or levels on the account.
- 2) I am not responsible for any bans
- 3) I will not swap accounts for invalid account info issues
- 4) No refunds, all sales are final

Jamii2 - August 4, 2016, 9:56 pm

So you won't replace our accounts that do not work? My friend bought a 30 and it didn't work at all.

And we cant change the password since there is no email, so we are liable for accounts that don't work?

I just don't understand how if you by accident sold a faulty account, we can't get refunded or a working account.

You may have received one of the duplicates. When he wakes up he will handle the issues,if it doesn't resolve its self over night.

My account took 30 or 45 minutes, the sites handling TONS of sales so just hang in there and check in the AM for the account or his response.

I had a different issue that hopefully is resolved tomorrow if not I'll figure something out.

sageathor - August 7, 2016, 9:20 am

Unfortunately I can not vouch for OP. After several attempts to contact OP to resolve an account that wasn't working, I have been treated with disrespect and pushed as side and told off. I attempted to contact to resolve issue via two post in this thread, PM's sent to user and finally I was briefly able to speak with OP thru SKYPE. I have no foul intentions of stealing a $10.00 account that someone has never even touched or seen. I highly recommend Sam0885 for his account service as LUCKYMR7 has bugs in his automated process obviously as several people have been reporting. Hopefully no one has to go through the same deplorable experience as me.

EDIT:

OP Finally provided me with an working account that I paid for.

I highly recommend Sam0885 for his account service as LUCKYMR7 has bugs in his automated process obviously as several people have been reporting. Hopefully no one has to go through the same deplorable experience as me.I purchased at least 40 accounts off him every time one by one, only had one issue where two of my accounts wasn't working he solved the problem within 3 hours (I suppose when he woke up) so this experience of yours seems very unlikely to me.

Vouch for bro bro thank you homie!

I still got no access to the account i bought for 1$ yesterday. The password is invalid.

I am not a fraud and I find it funny that somebody would fraud for just 1$.I like that when I pay for something to receive it instead of paying for nothing.

I have pmed you and posted here and still no response. I shall wait few more hours for this matter to get resolved, if not I would seek another way.

Thank you.

You broke the TOS and you even disputed the money which led to negative balance on my PP.

However, an Deal Dispute has been created and will remain unsolved until you solve it.

Yes 100%

Added 20+

Added 30+ Premiums and reduced price to $15. Guaranteed a Dragonite, Snorlax, or Lapras with around 2k CP on every account!

Added 25+ Accounts , they are $3

Any way to tell?

No clue I was told it was a ban

clarky492 - August 12, 2016, 5:57 pm

No i think just a permaban for the account not for ip. But means the accounts we bought are useless

YGamer - August 12, 2016, 6:03 pm

It's not an iP ban other accounts work but just not this one

clarky492 - August 12, 2016, 6:03 pm

Guys the difference between bans:

Permanent ban means that just that account will not work, will never work.

Soft ban means you can open app but pokemon flee and cannot get items from pokestops. After a few hours this will un-ban u.

Ip ban means that u can no longer use the ip address to play pokemon on any account.

He's not on a vacation ban, but a vacation ban is when a member is leaving for a period of time and doesn't need HF and bans themselves.

This is very tempting, but 2 questions

1 - How Ban proof is this? Be it a new hacked account or added stuff to mine?

2 - Can rares be added as well as XP if i wanna still use mine?

YGamer - August 14, 2016, 12:45 pm

Isn't his vacation ban supposed to be over today? Well ill give it 2 more days

Hi guys this shop is closed. Also remember my terms of sale #2 is very important

- 1) I do not guarantee any certain pokemon or levels on the account.
- 2) I am not responsible for any bans
- 3) I will not swap accounts for invalid account info issues
- 4) No refunds, all sales are final

It is not my fault niantic did a ban wave

Sounds like a scam to me. I'll be thinking of it's worth charging back and creating a scam report.

I'll update when I'm off work.

AND before you claim 'it's in my TOS' that is a joke. You can't sell banned accounts to people and then say 'my TOS means I'm not responsible' did he sell you a banned account or you bought an account then got banned later?

Really?

you paid for an account that was obviously botted and had a high ban rate, technically you would be scamming the seller and he could open a scam dispute.

Not my problem you bought a botted account and now being a bitch about it being banned when its a 9/10 chance it'll be banned anyways.
