UsageEnter details and settings (the coordinates on that are YOUR OWN COORDINATES).

Press Login

Paste coordinates into the box in the Coordinates Tab (these are your TARGET Pokemon)

Press Snipe

Do not press again, go to the Log Tab

Wait for the log to stop before re-sniping (you do not have to relog)

If you are being spammed with 'InvalidResponse' errors (in white) it means the servers are limiting you, waiting is what you have to do!

Greatest - July 28, 2016, 7:58 pm

Just downloaded it, works well.

spankyou - July 28, 2016, 8:05 pm

I set my coordinates at Coordinates tab at 40.42126819640193,-74.36662137508392

But the log says "starting sniper on 0 pokemon coords"

and then it loops the "starting Execute on login server: Google"

"Successful Login"

Am I entering my coordinates wrong?

Greatest - July 28, 2016, 8:06 pm

What does this error mean? Starting to come up quite abit now.

Grim - July 28, 2016, 8:07 pm

looks nice does this have some sort of softban prevention?

The coordinates tab is for targets.
You set your coordinates on the settings page.

Format for coordinates:
<name> @ <lat>,<longitude>

Example:

[425 seconds remaining] 63% IV - Snorlax at 41.684145687996,-85.989550345494 [Moveset: ZenHeadbuttFast/HyperBeam]

I'm yet to get softbanned. As long as you're responsible you can't really get softbanned.

Servers cannot handle everyone's requests.
It happens a lot now-a-days.

It'll retry.

spankyou - July 28, 2016, 8:11 pm

thanks the pokemon name @ works but since I'm using a google account it is not letting me take the pokemon back :(It keeps throwing the API exception invalid error. BUT THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR GETTING THIS DONE. Once the google thing resolves, I can sniper pokemon from Google account.

ahhh.. it didn't work on my PTC either, silly API exception error, how do you get rid of yours lolll

Arrakis - July 28, 2016, 8:14 pm

You need to enter the google email, and password.

If you have 2FA please use the App Passwords that are optional, give it a google.

It never retries, it just logs out and back in and goes back to default state.

Nah no hurry, I've put in the coords on the list multiple times to faux-retry, and it throws the same error. (It'll attempt it each time though)

You enter coords only in snipebot, gobot actually farms pokemon/pokestops.

This is only for 'high' level accounts who want high IV pokemon for gyms and such.

Yes, your 'CURRENT' location from other bots.

Otherwise you'll be softbanned!

Coordinates are for targets.

Is anyone else getting this error message? I am sure this is user error. If someone can assist me with fixing this I would be very appreciative.

Well, unfortunately we use an API, which has not integrated some 'retry' abilities in itself.

Right now the snipe bot will simply retry forever.

They're slowly getting better at blocking bots :)

Theres something I dont understand. You are able to snipe pokemons and all but when I try I keep receiving the Exception in Encounter: PokemonGo.TocketAPI.Exceptions.Invalid shet

Its due to server overload ? I keep trying and its not working at all...

Maybe you can send me a PM to help me out ?

I currently have no time to explain it more, we assume that it's a limit put in place by the servers or developers or it is entirely random or the protos updated and the bot still fails with old protos but works sometimes.

Until the api is updated I cannot do much but retry on failures and hope for the best.

Find a pokemon you want.
