Thread: Shopping - Need Watches, Streetwear, and Classy.

ODDI55EE - July 30, 2016, 1:21 pm

Hey guys,

I'm looking for a website to buy nice watches.
Another site to buy street wear.

And another site to buy classy clothing or like business casual clothing.

Watches - I'm looking for semi expensive $50-$300.
The other 2 websites can be cheap but hopefully decent clothing

Thanks!

Go to replicawatch.info, check out vendors from Guangzong County provence of China, make sure you go with the one with the best reviews. Alternatively I've heard about a vendor on the darknet called REPAAA that sells a similar product for a higher price (but I don't use Tor). Purchase:

- Hublot Big Bang Stainless Steel latest version
- PANERAI LUMINOR PAM00351 (buy an authentic leather strap on ebay)

I know people that have taken these models to authorized dealers that could not tell the difference. You will appear to have a $5,000-11,000 watch. I've seen the other models (Rolex, etc.) but there are always slight imperfections from the real model.

If you must have an authentic watch in that price range: for fashion - get a Nixon. For quality Seiko (great for price, they make most of the outsourced "brand name" watches). Second quality choice would be Citizen.

Clothing, either:

- go to uniqlo.com and use coupon codes (try chrome honey extension)
- Nordstrom.com, and look for it on ebay. Store associates resell merchandise for 1/3 the price on ebay. You'll know a good vendor when you see it. Check out Bonobos for dress pants/khakis.
- Amazon also occasionally has 3rd party sellers selling brand name product for outrageously cheap (sourced from manufacturer's reps or retail associates) depending on your size.

Would be worth checking out fasionreps on reddit they have lots of people who use taobao and get large order shipped internationally
