These are all great. I remember my first time watching "The Ring" I was really young, couldn't sleep for a few days because I had no idea what was going on lmao. It's not so scary now that I'm older.

Deliver us from evil
Sinister 1/2
The woman in black 1-2-3

Frebbe - August 2, 2016, 4:26 pm

The strangers, best fucking horror ever, hands down.
The Conjuring 1 is great aswell
Sinister 1 Aswell
And basically anything James Wan does :)

IronClown - August 2, 2016, 7:31 pm

ring 2 japan version make me insomnia one week

KusheKurse - August 2, 2016, 10:06 pm

Babbadook is definitely tops.

Conjuring gave me chills a couple times, but not as bad as Final Destination. Might be a personal thing, but mortality is the thing that is always going to be horrifying to someone.

But why she so scary.

She is giving me disturbed thoughts from the scene she sits down and scratches near the mat in Rebecca's room.

That hair though. ?

Cold Hearted - August 3, 2016, 3:49 am

I love the Wrong Turn movies.

They are probably my favourite.

Axanas - August 8, 2016, 12:06 am

My favorite horror movie is definitely The Shining. Stephen King movies and books are the best, but maybe that's just me. :)

Vegeta - August 8, 2016, 12:52 am

When I was young I always thought 13 Ghosts was the scariest thing on earth because of the Jackal but I just rewatched it last week and I wasn't even scared lol.

I always thought The Texas Chainsaw Massacre was a creepy movie but a classic.

zilen175 - August 8, 2016, 9:25 am

The Equalizer 2012 , psychic movie.. ;)

2077 - August 8, 2016, 2:59 pm
