Thread: [\[FREE\] Video Editing Service](#)

Shoe - July 31, 2016, 3:41 pm

I'm offering a video editing service to anyone who may be interested. I'm willing to edit just about anything, such as:Game montages.

"Frag" videos.

School projects (sometimes teachers want you to write a song and sing it, I could edit that IF THE TEACHER PERMITS IT)

Short films.

The only thing I ask for is credit where it's due. I provide credit to the resources I use, I request credit for my work.

Feel free to contact me with a PM. I'll add you on Skype.

I might be interested!None of my previous works are available to public display. Some have been for educational institutions, some have been under NDAs (and still are). If you have something you want done, toss it my way and I'll be happy to take a look.
