Not hating on you, but this is ruining the HF market, even though its already shit, these accs sell for 5$ or so, and this ruins it.

Who would sell a Lvl +30 Account for 2€? Dude don't sell your Accounts here, sell them on Craigslist... You can get NICE Money there :D Well If you don't want your Accounts I would buy them :D

craigslist, facebook and ebay are not worth it on this scale, I would have to put up with 200 sketchy guys every day and people always suspect scams and on HF I have reputation and reviews ?

HF is just easier to deal on ?
