Thread: Team Instinct Requirement! Lets Take Gym together

8BallPoolKing - August 2, 2016, 12:35 pm

Hi guys,

Well as gps hack is on , our physical location does not matters, what i am thinking is that lets make up an team and attack gyms together and make them high level , difficult for opponent to win ..

And we gain coins , we take atleast 10 gyms together per day , giving us 100 coins daily ...

To join you must have atleast 10 Pokemons of CP 1500+

And about me i have around 100 pokemons with CP 1500+ :)

Well i know 1500 CP does not looks good as many maybe new players but we need big and powerful pokemons in order to have the gyms in our control , hope you all understand

I kinda like the idea of this, even though it sounds kinda stupid.. xD - And also, Team Instinct sucks.

Why not instead go outside to local gyms and cap them with anyways botted accounts which beat other local players?

Cant say but fact of game is u cant change the team after you choose it :P But lets be happy with where we are :)

Well i am not saying to attack the local players via bots , we are playing legit , just GPS hack for location . well we need atleast 10 gyms walking out cant get us these many Nonono. This game is about trusting your fuckin instincts. Pokemon aren't wise as Mystic chick says lmao, they are literally dumb animals which are given drugs to evolve lol.

"I'm researching why it is that they evolve"

lol noooo

"we are playing legit"

"just GPS hack for location"

And even if you do not take spoofing in mind. 90%+ people here who play do it with bots, so maybe you do not, but others who will join at least most of them certainly will have botted accounts, so...I am just saying...if people already botted accounts and spoof locations with them, then they certainly are not into the real meaning of the game...they will never probably go out so...what is the point...show your screen names on some random gyms? Good luck.

I see all of you wearing blue names are letting TEAM MYSTIC DOWN.

Me as #TeamMystic male leader is here to tell you, "I hope your computer burns out and you get the BLUE screen of death"

Incomplete - August 2, 2016, 8:26 pm

I like to take botted accounts, pile them all on the same team, and take my local gyms; why not just do that?
