Ive seen bigger business cards..

Too small in width and the logo is overwhelmed by the text.

No one does thread designs at 469x800px unless you have no clue on what you are doing.

PS. I ain't your nigga

I think the title looks horrible. Why is it so large? Why is it purely covering up a logo? and why is it the only thing on the thread with a black accent?

Hmmm...

I would pay to have you remove this pile of shit. Your graphic design really does make me want to vomit.

Nice try Millionare

See you on the other side.

Wow, is this the shit you were trying to sell me on my thread? Nice try man but like has already been said, this thread design is far too small.

Preview or not, I wouldn't buy it. Sorry.

Is he the person that people are saying just edits free PSDs? That's kinda what it looks like happened with this thread in the OP lol. He put a shitty title on a premade thread and changed the text.
