As the title would suggest, are there any real hacks to get free pokecoins?

Someone should make a gym farmer/sniper to fight and snipe unclaimed gyms

Yeah how about we go to the gyms our selves? Yeah good idea.

Lol just take 3-4 bottled accounts and go to the gyms that are in the middle of nowhere. Chances are you will stay there for a long time if you put strong pokemons.

Who the fuck even needs coins, nothing worth buying apart from more backpack space.

just get 9-10 (Depending if you want to throw your main into the mix) high level accounts and hold gyms with them.

You will get all gyms to lvl 10 and hold them for long ;)

Na the egg incubators, having 9 incubators at same time would be amazing, oh and the extra pokemon space too and lucky eggs
