Thread: I love my dog Boo, how about you?

Confound - August 3, 2016, 7:14 am

Hey, here is my dog, Boo.

Spoiler (Click to View)

He's cute, right? :)

Spoiler (Click to View)

He is around 7 or 8 years old now but still acts like a puppy every day. His personality is incredible, and I've never had such a great dog. He loves attention more than anything. Once you start petting him, he won't leave you alone for hours, always asking for more and more.

He loves to run around and snuggle with his sister.

He's a great overall dog, friendly with everyone, and I think you all would love him :)

Cute dogs man, my friend has one just like it and she is one of the friendliest dogs I have ever been around!

I have a dog and he's about to be four this september, pretty exciting. ?

My dog boo is 10 or so, and he still acts like a puppy. The good dogs never leave that phase :p
