H3God. Still selling his bullshit ebooks to gullible new members.

Proof thanks to MetroOutcast.

Flared - August 3, 2016, 8:02 am

how the hell does this prove he's faking vouches?

That's exactly what it's showing.

We've known that they've been doing this for ages, but now we got some PROOF thanks to ExiledMetro.

Its ironic that metro used to do the same thing all the time.

Of course it is, lol

Money making ebooks are shit and just a scam with fake proofs posted by some friends

Happeh - August 3, 2016, 8:25 am

I mean I'm not a fan of H3 but this screenshot is literally nothing. You couldn't have waited until you had all evidence before making claims like this?

Rocktop - August 3, 2016, 8:32 am

I never knew h3god was a female

Alprazolam? - August 3, 2016, 8:33 am

So I can't make $4000/sec 100% whitehat?

Seller - August 3, 2016, 8:34 am

This proof is not enough, it does look suspicious but it might be just an earning proof that he sends to a potential buyer.

I highly doubt any of the personal information you see in H3 God's skype is his/her actual personal information.

then they'll be all over the forum saying ohh it's a scam cause i didn't even try the ebookIf you actually believe this you are a legitimate retard and should be euthanized

Heartboy - August 3, 2016, 8:43 am

Damn, another one bites the dust. Thanks for the good looks OP. I was actually going to buy this today. Good to know Hack Forums is still allowing people to push crap through their asses and sell it to people.

Nope. I got too exited and couldn't resist.

Egregious Jr. - August 3, 2016, 10:46 am

Doesn't surprise me at all, apparently his echo friends were also proxy selling for him while under a post suspension.

Confound - August 3, 2016, 12:01 pm

Wasn't there a massive thread recently released about H3 running all of the marketplace, essentially? Fake proof seems very plausible. Then again, we must wait for more confirmations in regards to picture proof.

If you mean selling an book until it gets leaked and/or sales decrease and then selling "ownership", yeah.

Why else would he be sending payment proof for the voucher to show? It's obvious what his/her intentions are.

That image doesn't show anything, I'm not a fan of H3God but that image makes no sense and it I can't see any proof that H3God is telling people to vouch for him & post fake payment proof.

Problem is these people like to talk in slangity slang so it's hard to find something super blatant. But in the screenshot you see H3god sending a fake "earnings" pic for a fake vouch.

Ice Poseidon - August 5, 2016, 6:49 am

Detective Squidward, I am very pleased with your work.

Keep it up buddy!
