you have to sign up as well like I said it also depends on where you live in the US.

Is it only in US or does it work in UK as well?

I signed up, verified my phone number and nothing. :(

Probably doesn't work in my state, GL to everyone else though, looks legit.

Worked for me, only works at certain movie theatres on certain devices... mine worked for an AMC theatre.

Currently at the movies with this free ticket, never even heard of Atom before but the theater by me has an atom machine to scan all the people coming in using it.
