Thread: Help with Coming Soon Page

the lights - August 6, 2016, 7:39 am

Im a complete noob to wordpress and I bought a theme off themeforest and it comes with a bunch of different layouts as it stated and one of them was a coming soon page. How do I enable this Ive looked all over the dashboard and cant find anything. Anyone? Thanks ?

What theme? It must have an option in settings of the theme.

Wordpress offers a premade "Under Construction" page

Usually Premium themes have that option under their Theme Options.

If you can't find it or your theme just doesn't have it you can simply use the plugin underConstruction by Noah.

It's super easy to use.
