Some people have an even worse voice then me, so using it for advertising and stuff won't work. I did some voiceovers for some CPA Advertisers in the past and they liked it. That's why I made this store.

Same reason you wouldn't build a website yourself, or make a Papa John's pizza yourself. It's a service.

Thanks for the nice words Aecy! This is not an "asked to vouch/bump my thread please" post. Aecy is a legit customer who bought something. Just felt like I had to make this clear to everyone since there are a lot of fake vouches in the marketplace.
