SIM-403479 - August 7, 2016, 2:53 pm

I have 6 running too at the moment. Testing it out first and then hopefully gonna get more accounts.

Gotta get selling these to people irl

shreder - August 7, 2016, 2:56 pm

I'm running 8 accounts it's much faster than necro(and none of those pesky errors)

SL x TnT - August 7, 2016, 2:58 pm

Was that with mass evolving at the start? It'd be interesting to see how much it is without a mass evolve at the beginning. Makes the exp/hr more meaningful.

I've got about 80 running between 100k-120k (not Haxton) without mass evolving at 18 minutes in.

shreder - August 7, 2016, 3:00 pm

50 minutes running my exp is still around 280k so even if it's like over 100k it's still good in my eyes.

Im using haxton too but just for 1 account. Could you explain how you configure the config and everything else to run more accounts simultaneously?

Copy & paste the folder and just edit the details with your new logins.

Keep doing this and you can bot as many as you want.

Simpler than i thought :) Thanks for the info i just tested it and it works like a charm.

I have 1 more question btw. I created account "X" its botting for couple of hours now and already lvl 27. If i want to log in to it on my phone to see the pokemon etc. can i do this straight away? or should i wait a period of time? Will it get banned because of sudden location "jump" ??

You will get softbanned if its teleporting. Two ways of still login to your account on phone:

- Disable GPS in phone.
- Be softbanned, but let the bot unban you again.

Hope it helps! ?

I think the distance traveled has to do with how long you have to wait. A good rule is to wait as long as it takes in real life to get there :P
