Thread: Best place to sell accounts?

Skumzy - August 8, 2016, 2:57 am

Hey guys, just wondering where the best place is to sell accounts for the best price in your experience? As far as I know, you can sell accounts on sites like eBay for much more than on here, but eBay and PlayerAuctions are the only two websites that I'm currently selling on, hoping to find some others. Also, do you have any advice on listing the same account on multiple websites? I want them sold quick, but I also don't want to have an account sold on two sites simultaneously.

Thanks,
Skumzy

I had 5 auctions on ebay and they all got removed. In the mail I got they said I'm not allowed to sell accounts. Do you guys know a workaround for this issue?

Yea I've sold one there so far, hoping to sell a few more but it's pretty annoying with the payment processing time when they pay with PayPal. I'd prefer instant payment without too much of a risk of them charging back.

Everywhere but here.
Any local marketplace website/facebook group. Whatever Any forum where they don't advertise PoGo bots

i am posting on twitter + whatsapp groups local groups and of course this is not english so most of them have no clue what botting is and i just sell accounts level 28-30 for 15$ and i sold 2 level 34 for 45$ each, and all of that is a bank transfer so for me it's real life money while i can't withdraw paypal because i am not from the US

Look up popular forums, also try Gumtree(Australia) it isn't saturated much.. I sell stardust for 30$ per 100K, throw in a bit "extra" they always come back.
