Thread: uid=2025980 'Dark' | \$60

stink - August 8, 2016, 4:47 am

This user owes me $60 BTC, I sold him the Instagram user 'erectile' and the Twitter username 'Organs' Hope this gets resolved.

I need 50 posts to post links will edit as soon as I do get 50 posts.

I, then messaged him why hasn't the BTC sent, and he said 'it is pending.'

It's been about 9 hours since he has said he sent BTC. DWC this user seems super sketchy, really hope this gets resolved as I NEED the money for a loan I have with someone.

If he sold his CS inventory idk why he would scam for $60

You could have waited to make 50 posts before posting this deal dispute which is invalid since no proof has been presented.

I can open a thread and claim you screwed me out of $1000 without pictures and so on. Would that make my deal dispute valid or trustworthy? Nope.

Proof? Link to profile? Don't create deal disputes if you don't know how they should look.

Egregious Jr. - August 8, 2016, 4:49 am

Legit report. Dark has so many scam reports open so this probably won't get resolved. Sorry for your loss. Please provide proof however.

Sorry everybody for the mistakes! Should have thought twice about making the thread after I had slept.

Shut the fuck up you cunt, he only has 48 posts, you can clearly see that he is new even though he joined in 2015. Give the guy a break.

stink - August 8, 2016, 4:54 am

You need to change your rep on his profile or you will be rkod or banned.

You can't call someone a scammer without linking "YOUR OWN" scam report.

Ambien - August 8, 2016, 7:40 am

Yeah he had tons of reports already, he's broke as fuck.

Talu - August 8, 2016, 7:50 am

The guy is a notorious scammer, you should never have dealt with him. Sorry for your loss.
