Thread: uid=2025980 | Dark | \$1536 USD worth of open reports |

Egregious Jr. - August 8, 2016, 2:49 pm

UPDATE: Dark has been Rep Killed. Sadly this was not due to the scamming. Still, it means he won't be able to scam now.

Link to the user's profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2025980>

This guy has nearly 2 pages of scam reports, and I took the time to calculate how much this guy has scammed.

He has scammed a total of $1536.45 USD.

He needs to be stopped.

May I list all open scam reports he has? (Yes, I took the time to paste all these links)

That is 19 reports.

His only resolved report is this one:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5076997>

And the only reason it was resolved was because the owner pulled back the account.

THIS needs to be stopped, I'm making this thread to create awareness.

O t t o - August 8, 2016, 2:51 pm

I've messaged multiple users with reports open on him to add his name to the Deal Dispute Database so hopefully that'll reduce the amount of scams.

Knucklez. - August 8, 2016, 2:52 pm

That's unfortunate. Hopefully something is done.

Thanks for the heads up.

THE NORTH FACE - August 8, 2016, 2:52 pm

Thanks for this mate. He contacted me about my steam cards I'm selling and wanted to trade for them. Luckily I didn't want/need what he offered me.

Egregious Jr. - August 8, 2016, 3:01 pm

I'm considering PMing Omniscient a link to this thread, this must be stopped.

I wouldn't do that if I was you. Just try and convince those members scammed by him to add it to the database and that should reduce the scams by a large number.

I'm just going to hope he sees this thread, because this is absolutely ridiculous. Problem is, he often takes advantage of new members who aren't even l33t, therefore they can't add to the DB.

asvps - August 8, 2016, 3:09 pm

I've seen this user bidding on a lot of og accounts hes looking to scam more users! thanks for the alert op!

I know usually they don't deal with scammers, however in the past (if i remember right) they deal with huge scammers like these. Maybe leave a thread in the Rules, Announcements, News, and Feedback section.

Yeah I linked him here haha.

Hope he either gets this shit resolved or gets banned. I see him sending ALOT of PMs so hope no one falls for his bullshit if he is on the scamming route

Cyam - August 8, 2016, 6:25 pm

And what if Omni sees this thread? Staff don't get involved in deal disputes. Omni bans scammers only in rare occasions as far as I know and only the ones that go on rampage.

In my opinion, it's your fault if you deal or go first to guy with so many scam reports. That's why I don't think Omni will be banning him any time soon.

Target™ - August 8, 2016, 6:27 pm

Didn't anonymous like 2 years ago, ran a huge scam service and ended up with a bunch of scam reports and got closed?

While you're right; staff don't get involved, you don't call this a spree? He's scammed $1500 USD, and has almost 2 pages of scam reports. That's definitely a spree.

User scammed me and denied it.

StuffSneak - August 9, 2016, 1:49 pm

1.5k is a lot but as others pointed out, staff do not intervene in disputes.

Scintillation - August 9, 2016, 1:50 pm

He scammed me an Overwatch account, said after PP resolved disputes he would send me my money back and 3 months later he said I already received my money via PayPal when I don't even have a PayPal account! Absolute scum of the earth, he scams and goes inactive and then strikes again when shit is on the low.

TEMP_3133526 - August 9, 2016, 1:53 pm

He also cards twitch subscriptions.

There is no exploit or whatever how he says he gets them

Yeah, also scammed by this user. The worst bit is how he tries to twist it and scare you that hes going to "open a scam report", he even had the balls to -rep me.

Different people play the game differently. If you can cash out for some pixels then that's what you do.
