Thread: Who the fuck is stash -- calling u out pussy

Hackforums97 - August 8, 2016, 5:00 pm

this kid acts all hard and shit trying to front how he has money and flex's on Skype screenshare with stolen pp's that he doesn't even have access to funds to. he's a pathological liar and everyone believes his bs. its so stupid and dumb show 1 of your assets i bet you don't have shit also, before you try to post about me being a dirty indian lets get a couple things straight, because i really don't give a fuck nigga:

1. i am an indian
2. I do live in my parents basement (room gets too hot its on top of the garage fuck that, + i dropped my parents over 100k$ this year so hop off my dick broke boy)
3. I am a meme
4. You say no one likes me but I never really cared did i
5. you say i have fake money but u have no assets pussy

ok anyways ur a bitch and the internet is ur life and u have a pretty sad life so yea pce ez sad bitch ik this bitch boy can't post shit cuz he has nothing xdx added all he does is amazon refund and gay shit like that like idk why u think the internet is ur life and its p sad tbh. i know u can't do shit IRL too show me where u live and I swear to god i'll run up.

You're a pussy

no man it was my windows 7 pc i downloaded csgo hacks from mpgh and while back and then like 2 months after i won 50k$ btc from primedice (put like 7k$ in and got 50k$) and cashed out 20k$ cuz thats the most i could do per month and then i let the rest sit for 3 days logged into windows 7 pc went to wallet and then logged off forgot to delete wallet and rip btc how did i lose the btc?

here's how i would access my paper wallet funds

I would make a new blockchain account and add the private key to the acc and spend the money (w/o verifying email or anything) and then remove private key. i forgot to remove the private key once and then they went rip!!!

i was proolly key logged ok xd no because i wouldn't have ever said the word "stand" in that kind of sentence.

also the real reason is because we are selling the house and my room was just painted and i don't want to keep my pc in there because all my shit is all over the place and i'd scratch up the walls n shit anyways why the fuck do u care the fact that i have my shit in the basement doesn't matter

Flacko brother you do not earn 50k a day. Brother we saw your personal paypal and you had $238 in it and made $357 the whole month. Stop tryin' to flex broke boy. You're just mad because Stash got stacks and you got shit.

When I called you out for being broke you did the following:

Began to yell at your dog to get out of your room.
Began to tell your mother to "fuck off"
Began flexing more.
Threatened to fly to my house to punch me.

Very true. It's sad that people have to lead fake lives to feel a little bit of self gratitude. I agree 100% though. If you fake it long enough, eventually you start to become the part you're playing. Most people just audition for the wrong part. ?

No, but you sell nudes of random girls online.

I fail to see how that's any better.

Another misconception. The ideology behind it is no different than regular big business porn; you (the general, universal you - not you personally) are selling a fantasy. Whether that be a niche or the general idea of an attractive girl wanting your attention and needing your help financially.

Most people use random girls off the internet as that's the easiest. Dependent on your cash flow and your niche it can be quite legitimate. I have contracts and redistribution rights to the "packs" I use and essentially run an amateur porn site.

At the end of the day sex sales. You are right though in saying that E-Whoring is pretty grungy for the most part.

To add to what I said above you cannot have morals doing this. That's probably the most overwhelming factor for me; hearing a heartfelt story and connecting with someone on a myth.

I wouldn't use the word "proud". I don't know how I would justify what I do but I don't feel any less other than what I stated. These guys aren't "pedophiles". Many of them are in their mid to late 20s and are normal working class citizens. I've seen pictures of a fair number of them and they all seem like regular guys.

You meet a different batch of people every time. Some are very shy, some are too forward, and some are respectful. Not one for cliches but don't knock something until you've tried it.

this is to anyone that frowns upon ewhoring.

I may or may not have made 70K+ in a year from it.

I don't do it anymore as I've moved on to healthier things, but don't get it fucked up it's very possible to make a good living off of it if your good at it and find a good method.

I would make an ebook but i'm not a fag.
